Huge Committee Plans Great Witch Night Fun

Outdoor Fires Prohibited

If planning and sparkling imagination can make it so, Newton's 17th Hallowe'en celebration will be the best in point of fun and recreation since the city took over the task of making it interesting for the youth without destruction.

This year the hard-working committee for the all-city celebration anticipates 16,000 school children of all ages, all faiths and all predilections for entertainment, will participate.

There will be parties in every neighborhood, on the big night, Thursday, Oct. 31.

As in previous years, the programs will be sponsored by the Newton Recreation Department, under direction of Commission

C. Evan Johnson. Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester is again general chairman. Mrs. Ragna Ovgard will again serve in the important program chairman's post.

Fire Sends No Calling Card But Carelessness Invites It

Next week Newton will participate with the rest of the nation in Fire Prevention Week. You don't have to stop around at your favorite fire station but Fire Chief Frederick Perkins, Jr., thinks you might save yourself a lot of woe if you'll acquaint yourself with some basic principles about preventing fire in your own home.

He offers the following suggestions:

1. Do not allow children to live or play with matches. Matches should be kept in a safe place where small children cannot get them.

2. Each year many people are burnt to death from smoking in bed. If you have anyone in your family that smokes in bed, please speak to them and try to have them sit in a chair and use an ash tray if they just smoke, it will be much safer for everyone. Ash trays should be placed in every room where people smoke. Do not dump ash trays into the waste basket.

3. Electric wires should be treated with respect and not faced under rugs to be walked on or through doors that close. You have any electrical trouble before it becomes dangerous and starts a fire.

4. Clothes should only be dry cleaned by using a fluid that is safe. Never use gasoline or other highly flammable cleaning aids inside of your home. The best place to do dry cleaning is outside where there is plenty of fresh air.

5. Hot ashes from the furnace or stove should always be placed in a metal barrel or container. They should never be placed in a cardboard carton, wooden barrel or box as the hot ashes can start this type of a fire.

6. Papers, trash and all other materials that are no longer needed and that could help a fire to spread should be removed from the closets, basements and attics. Now is the time to do this before any trouble starts.

7. Portable oil space heaters should never be carried around the home when they are lighted. They should be cleaned regularly.

Drops Clothes Into Bath Tub

Police are investigating an unusual break into the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Skenderian at 34 Agawam rd.

The person who broke into the home took the clothing of Mr. and Mrs. Skenderian from a closet and dumped it into a bath tub full of water. Nothing was taken from the dwelling.

Entry to the home was gained by removing a storm window and breaking the glass over the lock on the sun porch.

Effective GOP Organization Job Being Done by Gibbons

BOSTON, Sept. 30 — Republican State Committee Chairman Charles Gibbons has been doing a quiet but effective job of building up the GOP organization across Massachusetts.

A skilled and seasonal politician who knows what to do and how to do it, Gibbons is putting a maximum amount of drive and effort into his task, and he has more than an ordinary stake in the success of his undertaking.

Usually, the Republican State chairman is working to improve the election prospects of his party's candidate or Governor and the other members of the GOP State ticket.

The man Gibbons expects will be carrying the Republican gubernatorial banner in the 1958 campaign and leading the GOP ticket in the next State election battle is himself.

Some time between now and the early part of next year Gibbons will step out as State chairman and assume the mantle as candidate for the Governorship. But before he does he is anxious to bolster the GOP organization to as great an extent as possible. His eagerness in that direction is quite understandable.

What Gibbons has been and is doing is holding county meetings with the Republican town committee chairmen and vice chairmen and the ward committee chairmen and vice chairmen in the cities.

Lovinger Slayer To Die in Chair; 2 Others Spared

Henry P. Arsenault, Jr., 28, of Framingham, who fired the shot which killed Attorney Merrill Lovinger in a Newton home on the night of Feb. 4, 1955, must die in the electric chair for his crime, the Governor's Council ruled this week.

By a vote of 5-3 the Council turned down a recommendation by Governor Furole that Arsenault be spared from the electric chair and that his death sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

Arsenault, who was described by his attorney as in a state of "psychotic neurosis" and having indications of insanity, will be the first person to be executed in Massachusetts in a decade.

He will go to the chair within the next seven days.

By a 5-3 vote the Council commuted the death sentences of Arsenault's two companions, Arthur L. Devlin, 31, and Russell P. LeBlanc, 24, both of Waltham.

The three who voted to commute Arsenault's sentence were Lieutenant Governor Robert F. Murphy and Councilors Joseph R. Crimmins of Somerville and Raymond F. Sullivan of Springfield.

Bank Bandits Get Additional Prison Terms

Two gunmen, who held up the Newton Highlands branch of the Newton Savings Bank on July 16, pleaded guilty in Middlesex Superior Court this week and were given additional sentences by Judge George E. Thompson.

The two bandits, Andrew Scibelli, 39, of Springfield, and Robert J. Savage, 27, of Sharon, already are serving prison terms and were brought from the State Prison at Walpole to face charges of holding up the Newton Highlands bank.

Scibelli was sentenced to 2½ to 3 years in prison, the time to be served after he completes the 10-to-15 year term he is now serving. Savage was sentenced to 6 to 10 years, the time to run concurrently with the term he is now serving at Walpole.

The pair terrorized four employees, a woman customer and a 6-year-old girl while they were gathering up $2382 which they took from the bank.

Police Lieutenant George W. O'Neill told Judge Thompson that Newton police knew the identity of the two bandits within a half hour after the holdup occurred.

FBI agents not only obtained warrants for the arrest of Savage and Scibelli, it was revealed, but brought pictures of the two men to the bank where they were identified by employees.

Newton School Enrollment Up by 3 Per Cent

An increase of 508 pupils in the registration of Newton's public schools is reported by Assistant Superintendent Charles O. Richter, a rise of slightly more than 3 per cent.

The increase is spread pretty much through all levels of the school and in general follows the anticipated rise. Since the year's initial enrollment is traditionally pegged for Oct. 1 for official purposes and the survey is based on the registration for opening days, it may be slightly increased.

The High School enrollment is up 239 pupils, to 2723. Officials had predicted 2725.

Technical High School jumped 10 pupils to a total of 339. Junior High School did not follow the general pattern, as was expected. They dropped 27 pupils from last year's registration due to a decline in the birth-rate toward the end of World War II.

The only decrease among the elementary schools was at the Williams School, Auburndale, where there were 39 fewer pupils. This was due to the fact that many of the pupils last year were children of missionaries from Walker Missionary Homes who left with their parents for other parts of the world.

He had good excuses for the two he missed in that long period. On each occasion he attended a funeral, one for that of a very close friend; the other for the last rites of a relative.

Responsibility To Be Fourth "R" At Newton Hi Says New Principal

By PHYLLIS B. NEWTON

To instill a greater sense of responsibility into high school students is one of the major goals of Newton High's new principal, Harold Howe II, boyish-looking but mature minded educator who is "settling in" as head of a 175-member faculty and a student body of 2723.

"The present size of the high school," says Howe, presents a tremendous challenge to everyone involved with it — including the students. It is important that schooling be personal, and in a big school everyone must work harder to accomplish that end.

"It can be done," he continued, "and one of the most important ways is by developing wide student participation in the government of school affairs — with large numbers of young people feeling a responsibility in this area — as well as in the personal area of academic accomplishment."

"I see this post," Howe explained, "as essentially a personnel job and the fact I enjoy the most is attempting to create an atmosphere that induces good work. There is fascination for me in smoothing the way so that things get done."

4000 Too Many

Newton's decision to build a second high school was a wise one according to Howe, as 4000 youngsters converging on one plant would result in little more

Rep. Rawson Batted 1.000

For devotion to duty it would be difficult to outdo the record of State Representative George E. Rawson of Newton. As far as attendance at the session of the Legislature, which finally adjourned recently, Representative Rawson's record was without a blemish.

There were 138 roll calls during the marathon session. Representative Rawson was present for each and every one. As a matter of fact, since the Legislature began keeping an attendance record back in 1949 there have been 1772 roll calls.

He had good excuses for the two he missed in that long period. On each occasion he attended a funeral, one for that of a very close friend; the other for the last rites of a relative.

Auburndale Boy Dies of March Crash Injuries

Joseph L. MacDonald, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Milton MacDonald of 7 Rider terrace, Auburndale, died at Newton-Wellesley Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile crash in West Newton, March 14.

Two other Newton teen-agers were killed in the accident which occurred on Chestnut street, Newton. They were Raymond Coder, 16, of 356 Auburndale avenue, and George F. Gannan, Jr., 16, of 11 Rider Street. The theft occurred at the Victoria Adding Machine Co. at 24 Elliot street, where entrance was gained by prying off the frame of a double door at the rear of the building.

A total of 25 electric machines, valued at $404 apiece, were taken. The machines were packed in individual cartons.

Man Killed In Plunge From Tower

James Barnett, 21-year-old construction worker from Greenville, S. C., met instant death when he plunged 250 feet from the Channel 5 television tower under construction on Chestnut street in Newton Upper Falls. His body was crushed under a 30-foot steel beam which fell to earth after him and landed on top of him.

Barnett, employed by a Rome, Ga., firm, was a member of a crew which was putting up the tower. He was working high in the air on the tower. The accident occurred when he stepped on the beam, and it crashed to earth with him.

The beam was being raised by a stationary crane. When Barnett stepped on the beam, the boom or arm of the crane snapped off.

Other workers said they thought the beam caught on a permanent guy wire and that the weight of the beam caused the boom to break as it was moved upward.

Death was pronounced at the scene by the medical examiner.

The crane is owned by the Mahar Equipment Corp. of South Boston.

The new television tower is slated to rise 1200 feet into the air. It already has reached a height of 175 feet.

Thief Raids Clothes Line

A thief with a taste for ladies' flimsy stile 10 pairs of panties of various shades and colors and one white slip, while they were hanging on the line drying at the Peabody Home, 474 Brookline St. Superintendent Nelle Smith, who reported the thief, told police she had noticed a man looking at the clothing.

Protest To Committee On Traffic

A delegation of residents from the Newton Highlands area appeared before the Aldermanic street traffic committee at City Hall Monday night to urge and plead that steps be taken to eliminate hazardous conditions at the intersection of Needham, Dedham and Winchester streets.

Installation of a traffic signal light at the busy intersection was proposed as one of the steps which would improve conditions.

Alderman Charles H. Cosgrove, chairman of the street traffic committee, observed during the hearing that Needham street is a State highway and comes under the jurisdiction of the State public works department.

Any move to install a traffic signal light at that location would have to be approved by the State and would be held up while a study was made of conditions, Cosgrove explained. His committee will make its report next Monday night.

Thieves Get $10,000 Loot Over Weekend

Burglars carried away $10,000 worth of adding machines from a Newton Highlands plant over the past weekend.

The theft occurred at the Victoria Adding Machine Co. at 24 Elliot street, where entrance was gained by prying off the frame of a double door at the rear of the building.

A total of 25 electric machines, valued at $404 apiece, were taken. The machines were packed in individual cartons.

Mr. Downe was introduced to the first Governing Board meeting of the Council in the Council office, recently, at a meeting at which Albert R. Beisel Jr., presided.

Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr., made the presentation. Mr. Downe told the Governing Board that the Community Council has a deep and vital interest in planning policies and there should be a close liaison between the Council as an unofficial agency with the official municipal agencies.

Physics Course Offered in Adult Evening Classes

A physics course designed to meet the requirements of those who desire high school diploma credits that will be recognized as satisfactory for college entrance will be offered this fall in Newton's Adult Evening Program. These same requirements will also serve the purpose of terminal general education.

The content of the course will embody the basic principles of physics with emphasis on critical analysis. Most of the mathematics required will be developed as needed. Laboratory work will be included.

Protestant Churches Plan Adult School of Religion

The Protestant Churches in Newton Centre are planning a program of four weekly meetings, starting next Wednesday night, to take the form of an Adult School of Religion.

Sponsors of the school are the First Baptist Church, the First Church in Newton (Congregational), the Newton Centre Methodist Church and Trinity Church (Episcopal).

Meetings are planned for 7:30 on the next four Wednesdays — Oct. 9, 16, 23 and 30. They will be held in the main auditorium of the Trinity Church Parish Hall on Furber Lane, Newton Centre. The parish hall has recently been completed and has a large seating capacity.

The First Congregational Church will sponsor the coffee hour next Monday night. Trinity Church, the Baptist Church and the Methodist Church will serve at the succeeding meetings.

In addition to Dr. Ferris, the School staff will include Dr. Harrell Beck, associate professor of the Old Testament at the Boston University School of Theology; Dr. James Burns, director of pastoral services of the Massachusetts Council of Churches; and Mrs. Kenneth Lucas, chairman of children's work for the Massachusetts Baptist Convention and superintendent of the junior department in her own Baptist Church in Reading.

ly and when used they should be placed so that they will not be knocked over by anyone. Small children should be kept away from them at all times.

If you do have a fire in your home, call the Fire Department at once either by telephone or by sounding the nearest fire alarm box. When you sound the fire alarm box, be sure to stay at the box until the fire apparatus arrive and tell them just where the fire is located. For everyone's safety never sound a false alarm. A home that is kept nice and clean seldom burns. This year let every one play that they are fire inspectors and do everything possible to keep their home safe and free from all types of fire hazards.

"Let all of us do our part the whole year round and see if we can make our school district the safest area there is in Newton in which to live. The fires we prevent may save our home or a life, now is the time to clean up instead of burning up, so we can live in safety," Chief Perkins urged.

The Macdonald boy after weeks at the hospital where he was listed as a critical patient was returned to his home. He collapsed at home, however, and died at the hospital a few hours later.

He was a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and was a freshman at Boston College at the time of the accident. His death marks Newton's seventh auto fatality of the year.

Funeral services were held Monday when a solemn requiem mass was sung at Corpus Christi Church, Auburndale.

The survey includes collection and analysis of information; a study of housing conditions, preparation of a capital budget program for the next six years and a review of zoning provisions.

Article Stresses Customer Service At Watertown Bank

How Watertown (Mass.) Federal Savings and Loan Association has achieved one of the best growth records in New England through its policy of treating the customer as "king" is told in the September issue of SAVINGS AND LOAN NEWS, monthly publication of the United States Savings and Loan League.

In an article entitled "Watertown Federal — Here's a Service Institution that Makes Every Customer 'King,'" the nationally circulated magazine reports that in the last ten years — ever since the association came under the management of President William P. Sawyer — Watertown Federal's assets has increased from $8 million to $24 million.

In the first six months of this year alone, the article reports, the Watertown institution has racked up a 11.4 percent net gain in savings. This compares with an average increase of 4.8 percent in net savings for other New England federal savings and loan associations in this period.

The article, which was written by Richard Pokriefko, NEWS feature editor, attributes Watertown Federal's outstanding success to its hard-hitting policy of "Merchandising Service" inaugurated by Sawyer shortly after he took over in 1947. Sawyer, who is a member of the Executive Committee of the United States League, has formulated his policy on the belief that the growth of any savings institution must rest on top service, and particularly service tailored to meet the needs of the small saver.

The article notes that Watertown Federal's new building is representative of the association's efforts to provide its customers with the best. Among other things, the new office opened with great success in January — features a walk-up teller, that permits transactions during "off hours," and a 40-car parking lot to ease customers' parking worries.

Still another popular service is the association's operation of an industrial branch office at the Hood Rubber Co. plant. Currently, the branch is serving 3,000 of that firm's 5,500 employees.

The open road beckons during the fall and it's a temptation to sail along at high speed. If you're wise, you'll drive within posted speed limits—and above all, adjust your speed to conditions, advises the Triple-A.

The five councillors who refused to commute his sentence were Christian A. Herter, Jr., of Newton, Augustus G. Means of Essex, Charles J. Gabriel of Hingham, Joseph P. Dupont of New Bedford and Patrick J. McDonough of Dorchester.

Herter, Means and Gabriel voted against the commutation of the death sentences of Devlin and LeBlanc.

Before recommending the commutation of the death sentences of the three men, Governor Furcolo unsuccessfully sought to have their execution postponed until next Feb. 1.

That proposal was turned down by a 7-1 vote of the Governor's Council, with Councillor Joseph R. Crimmins, Somerville Democrat, the lone member recorded in support of it.

Attorney General George Fingold led the opposition to the commutation of the death penalty.

Fingold urged the Councillors not to allow themselves to become a part of any scheme to spare the three men from the electric chair.

Among those who joined in opposing the clemency recommendation were Newton Police Chief Philip Purcell and Mr. and Mrs. William Lovinger, parents of the slain man. "All I want is justice," Mrs. Lovinger told the council.

Attorney Frank Juggins, counsel for Arthur L. Devlin, said that Devlin is deaf in one ear and did not know anyone had been shot until he was outside the home where the shooting occurred.

Juggins also placed considerable emphasis on the fact that the three bandits by mistake rang the doorbell of the wrong house, when they actually intended to rob a man named Silberman.

Fall plans are well under way at the Jackson Homestead, 527 Washington St., Newton. Open House has been changed to the third Sunday of each month, and Oct. 20th will start the season off with an exhibit appealing to young and old alike.

"Two Centuries of Children's Toys and Possessions," from the collections of Mrs. George M. Wile, the Homestead, and others, will be on view through December. The next three months will feature "Antiques—Our Priceless Heritage." Arranged by Mrs. Edward J. Sawyer and her committee, this will include Period Pieces, Collector's Items, and Family Heirlooms.

Spring will be ushered in with "Parade of Fashion"— fashions in clothes and accessories dating from the 18th Century—from the collections of Mrs. Frank Winthrop and the Jackson Homestead.

Hostesses will explain the exhibits, and show visitors the charming old house. Girl Scouts will be there, too, dressed in old-fashioned costumes. The Welcome Mat will be out from 3 to 5 o'clock on these Sundays.

Children are Homestead's most loyal boosters and friends. Each Thursday, their special day, finds the house filled with all ages and sizes. Many have been here so often they could almost qualify as guides! They bring their friends and young relatives with them.

Most of the Third Grades in the Newton schools come for a tour of the house during the centuries. Soup is cooked in the old kitchen fireplace; manners and customs are described; old games played; candles are dipped; the story of slavery is told in the very room where William Jackson hid the runaway slaves; and demonstrations of such things as weaving, old guns, and costumes will be given.

Classes are limited to 20 children, and there will be another series in the spring.

Something To Think About

"Careless Smoking."

"Defective Wiring."

You'll find those words paired in fire departments all over the country. They're in the laconic records which explain the nature of the calls the departments answer. Sometimes the records report the death of human beings and the loss of millions of dollars worth of property.

"Careless Smoking."

"Defective Wiring."

They're just part of the necessarily brief report. Newspaper readers come across them many times during the course of the year. To the average reader they don't mean much. They skip over that part of the story for the more exciting details.

"Careless Smoking."

"Defective Wiring."

They mean a lot to the firemen. They know those phrases explain the causes of millions of dollars in fire losses every year and of scores of human lives sacrificed in man-made infernos.

We bring attention to the words because another Fire Prevention Week is at hand. As a rule we pay no attention to special days and special weeks.

Most of them, we presume, are ideas concocted by men in gray suits in plush advertising nests of Madison Avenue skyscrapers. They've become a bit silly. During Apricot Week they may sell some extra cans of apricots by the simple process of letting people know that apricots can be bought in cans.

Spinster Week, no doubt, stimulates the purchase of greeting cards for old Maid Aunts. Fido probably winds up with an extra can of dog food during Be Kind to Your Dog Week.

It's too bad Fire Prevention Week tends to get pushed into that category.

Certainly, it doesn't do any harm to direct attention at least once a year to one of man's most implacable foes.

Certainly, too, it may save some lives at least to point out that careless smoking—which not only includes the careless disposal of that cigarette but also the devotee of Lady Nicotine who must smoke in bed even as Morphewus woos—is one of the most prevalent causes of fire fatalities in the United States today.

Nor is it, we hope, wasting time to point out that a tremendous percentage of life-taking, property-destroying fires in homes and other establishments because people were careless about the way the electricity which served them so well was harnessed. A frayed light cord, a wire stretched under a rug is a potential instrument of death. Yet, neither will cause the least fear in the mind of the average householder—until... it's too late.

We recommend to all our readers the eight points the fire chief makes in a story elsewhere in this issue. They may save you and your family from a catastrophe at some unknown time in the future.

Political Overtones

Where vacancies exist on the committees, he is recruiting new members, and he is making a special effort to get young men and women interested and active in the work of the Republican town and ward committees as well as the GOP clubs.

Gibbons already has covered Worcester County and next Monday will start in Bristol County.

Reports from various sections of big, sprawling Worcester County indicate that Gibbons has been making substantial progress, that he is getting more people active in the various GOP groups and at the same time is pumping new life into the Republican committees and clubs.

In the course of doing that work, Gibbons is not exactly lessening his own prospects of gaining the gubernatorial nomination at the Republican pre-primary convention next June because many of the persons with whom he is sitting down will be delegates at that convention.

Gibbons, of course, is attending the meetings and conferences as chairman of the Republican State Committee, not as a candidate for Governor, but he also is strengthening contacts and friendships that will be valuable to him a few months hence.

How he will fare in his quest for the Governorship is a question that only time will answer, but it can be reported that Gibbons is a good organizer.

He demonstrated that when he served as Speaker and as Republican leader in the Massachusetts House of Representatives. He proved his ability in that direction in former Governor Christian A. Herter's two campaigns and in his own campaign for the Lieutenant Governorship last year when he found himself trying to pull against a Democratic tide at the State level.

Gibbons declares that he is not yet giving any thought to the bid he will make for the Governorship and that for the present he is concentrating entirely on his work as Republican State chairman.

His friends, however, assert that they anticipate a two-man fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination between Gibbons and Attorney General George Fligold. So far, they say, they see no other prospective contenders in sight, although they admit the picture may change.

Random Clippings

An FBI agent in Kensington, Conn., who saw some new wires in his home, figured someone was trying to tap his telephone line. After tearing them out, he learned too late that the wires had been installed for a hi-fi set his wife was planning to give him as a birthday present.

ANGELO J. BASSETT

Angelo J. Bassett Seeking Ward 4 Aldermanic Seat

Angelo J. Bassett of 5 Agawam road, Waban, is a candidate for Alderman from Ward 4, which covers parts of Waban, Newton Lower Falls and Auburndale.

For the past 10 years Bassett has been an executive in the organization of the Hotel Corporation of America at Boston's Somerset Hotel. He believes that his business experience with "efficiency" and "work simplification" methods emphasized, added to his education which includes law school, have combined to give him the qualifications voters seek in a candidate.

He was at one time a radio commentator.

He is a member of the Newton Taxpayers Association. He has been active with the Boy Scouts in Newton, was chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, PTA, in Waban and has worked on Red Cross drives, and many other civic and charitable organizations.

Mr. Bassett is married and the father of two sons, Peter who attends the Angier School, Waban, and Stephan who is at the Warren School, Newton.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Bassett said, "The need for long-range careful planning, particularly in a growing city like Newton is absolutely essential to its future. I believe my legal training, my business experience, and my very great interest in the community will be valuable in giving the people of Newton good representation.

If elected Alderman, I plan to be available to my constituents for discussions of important problems and shall periodically keep them informed of the results."

Ex-Rep. Spear Dies; Served For Ten Years

Former Representative Margaret L. (Abbott) Spear, of 121 Bishopsgate road, Newton Centre, died at the age of 75.

She was the widow of Ellis Spear, Jr., and was long active in Republican affairs in this city. She served in the Legislature for 10 years starting in 1940 and took a prominent role during that period in legislation affecting welfare and education.

She was secretary of the Newton Republican City Committee for 12 years. Active in programs of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, she was also a member of the Newton City Hall Building Committee.

Mrs. Spear was a gifted writer and her poetry appeared from time to time in various newspapers.

She was a past president of the Boston-Wellesley Club of Newton and the Newton Women's Club.

Two sons, Ellis and Attorney Abbott Spear, survive. Funeral services were held Sunday at the First Church in Newton (Congregational).

Christian Science Services Emphasizes God's Power to Heal

The ever-present power of the Christ, Truth, to heal sickness and to destroy discord will be brought out at Christian Science Services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" will include the following from Luke (13:11-13): "And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (142:31): "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, today, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

Two Scouts of Troop 49 Get "God and Country" Award

Two Boy Scouts of Newtonville Methodist Church's Troop 49, one already a member of a High Scout order and the other the new National Junior Archery champion, received one of scouting's most prize awards at Sunday morning ceremonies held at the church.

Robert Heckman, 15, and Robert Oxnam, 14, both of Newtonville, were presented a special scouting citation, "The God and Country" award, by Rev. Hamilton M. Gifford, pastor of the church at the eleven o'clock morning services. Robert Galivian, scoutmaster of Troop 49, assisted in the presentation.

Merit for the boys' coveted awards was based on service and study in five areas: "Christian faith, witness, world outreach, citizenship and fellowship."

The two Newton High School sophomores worked for over a year under the supervision of Rev. Gifford to complete provisions for the award. They managed to fulfill the service requirements of the citation by performing such tasks of industry as folding the 350 church bulletins each Sunday; repairing and refinishing the church's banquet tables; serving and cleaning up during the four Sundays of "University of Life," the annual all-church family program; and delivering flowers and plants to shut-ins at Easter time.

For their study requirement, they learned church history, Bible courses, and the organization and value of the World Council of Churches and the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Each also had to interview a Christian layman on his idea of the application of Christian principles in daily life, making a report on findings to Rev. Gifford.

Refreshments will be served by the Countryside hospitality committee at the close of the meeting. Open house will be held in all classrooms to enable parents to meet their children's teachers.

A new system of teaching is in its second year with a person experienced in his particular age group as a lead teacher.

Miss Alice Corson is in charge of the first and second grades; Ralph Angier will teach the third and fourth grades; these two groups will meet at the Hunnewell House at 9 a.m. until the new Eliot Church is completed.

Mrs. Earl Douglas is the teacher for the fifth and sixth grades. Samuel Grainger will supervise the Junior High School students. These two groups will also meet at the Hunnewell House, but at 10:30 a.m.

The minister, Dr. Ray A. Euston, will be aided by the Rev. William W. Clark as assistant minister. His duties will include the instruction of the Senior High School in their worship fellowship and study.

Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. by Mrs. Alan Shaw and Mrs. Charles Worthen and their committee. Children's luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Hill, which should be ready by 1960, will accommodate between 1000 and 1500 pupils, with the present high school maintaining an enrollment of about 2000.

A house plan is being considered for the new high school,

Howe revealed, with three units of 400 to 500 each revolving about their own center with separate facilities for each group. The division will probably not be by grade level. This type of arrangement, used in some colleges and in certain New York and Connecticut high schools, achieves more of the personal quality so much desired.

To Reassure Parents

Another problem that must be tackled at the high school is that of interpreting the college admissions situation to parents and pupils alike. Howe is planning a series of meetings with seniors and their families to tell them how much help the high school offers in this area and to give information about college boards and scholarships.

The college picture has changed completely in the last 20 years," Howe said. "Some schools that were formerly excellent have changed in character and others unheard of by the last generation may now be top-drawer. Parents need to be reassured that while the competition is tough, there is no point to become hysterical. Their boys and girls can still get into good schools and the high school is ready to help them do it."

Howe pointed out, however, that it was a mistake to judge the quality of a school by the percent of its graduates who go on to college. The Walnut Hills H.S. in Cincinnati, where Howe was principal until last June, was a college preparatory high school, attended only by qualified students intending to go to college. Almost 100 per cent of them achieved that goal.

ON TV SHOW

"But Newton," he reminded parents, "while a college-oriented community, operates a comprehensive high school with many other goals besides college preparation." (Approximately 72 per cent of NHS graduates go on to post-secondary education—a figure generally considered very high.)

The young Yale grad, in horn rimmed glasses and looking like a college student himself, will bring this problem before a larger audience beginning Oct. 21 when he will moderate a series of panel discussions entitled "College and You" over Channel II. The program will be seen at 7:15 on Monday nights.

He is enthusiastic about the Newton Plan and called it a "hopeful demonstration—a new approach to instruction that attempts to expose as many students as possible to the most skillful instruction with a follow-through in smaller groups."

It is an atmosphere that produces experiments like this that Howe hopes to maintain at the high school. "My job is to be sure the place is alive and alert to new thinking developed to meet new problems. Steady, high-quality teaching is paramount, but we must continue to explore new ways."

The new principal comes from a family of educators. His father was a chaplain and assistant headmaster at private schools, taught at Dartmouth College and later became president of Hampton Institute, a Negro college that had been founded by Howe's grandfather, a general in the Civil War.

EX-HISTORY TEACHER

A brother is at Yale as director of admissions, and a sister formerly taught at Shady Hill in Cambridge. Following the war and graduate school, Howe toyed with the idea of going into business, but apparently his career was practically predestined and he became a history teacher.

Howe and his wife, Priscilla or "Sibby," chose Newton Highlands as the place to make a home for their three youngsters and on Labor Day moved to 32 Rockledge Rd. The children are Catherine (Cathy) 10, Merrill, 9, and Gordon, 5, and all are enrolled in the Hyde school. Cathy, now in the sixth grade, has attended five different grammar schools while her father filled various academic posts, and would like to "stay put" this time.

Mrs. Howe, who majored in history in Vassar, met her husband while both were doing volunteer work in Newfoundland one summer vacation for the Grenfell Mission. They were married after graduation, and now as the mother of three, Mrs. Howe describes her career as "doing all the things that have to be done."

LIKE GREAT OUTDOORS

"Domestic life—cooking and cleaning that is, don't exactly thrill me—but I do it and even enjoy it most of the time." Formerly active in Girl Scouts, and "endlessly" involved in PTA work, Mrs. Howe also enjoyed very much some volunteer work she did in a Cincinnati political campaign last year.

"Our family hobby, though, is to be outdoors together she said. "We enjoy sailing, fishing, skiing, hunting and some gentle mountain climbing with the children." The Howes summer at Squam Lake in New Hampshire.

In addition to his accomplishment in several of these outdoor sports, Howe is a handy man to have around the house. Not only can he cook a decent meal—and his wife agrees to that—but tangible evidence of his prowess with a hammer and saw exists all over the Howe premises. He made the coffee table and radio cabinet in the living room, a long trestle-type table for the dining room, and several beds.

"I'm a pretty good carpenter," he modestly admits.

Howe is a relaxed individual and apparently feels to maintain this un hurried calm is really the best way to get things done. One impression he has received at Newton High is that of people being "almost painfully busy", he said.

"Not that people shouldn't work hard—of course they should—but with so much split second timing essential at the high school, perhaps a little conscious effort by individuals to relax tensions might produce a better all-round working atmosphere."

YMCA Summer Campers Broke All Previous Attendance Records

The first Fall meeting of the Newton Y Board of Directors featured reports of the four Newton YMCA camping programs, which indicated that a record breaking number of 742 boys took part in camping during the past summer.

Addressing the meeting, presided over by Fred A. Hawkins, vice president of the Y, were Frank M. Simmons, director of Camp Frank A. Day; Richard B. Simmons and Edward R. DiPersio, directors of Camp Massasoit; Russell E. Ball and Donald J. Eacmen, directors of Camp Chickami; and Elton E. Bertsch, directors of Camp Vagabond. Camp directors were introduced by the following committee chairmen: Fred A. Hawkins, Camp Day; Robert H. Cobb, Camp Massasoit; and Phillip A. Laskway, Camp Vagabond.

With ideal weather for camping the Y's residence camp, Frank A. Day, opened for its 42nd season on June 25th and served 225 different boys, 186 of whom came from the various villages of Newton, with the other 39 coming from 15 outside communities.

A feature of the year was the Camp Day Father's Club which planned and enjoyed two successful fathers' weekends with a total attendance of 232. Camp Massasoit, the day camp at the building, concluded 8 weeks of summer camping on August 16th, with the highest enrollment since the record 1953 season. A total of 256 different boys enjoyed the facilities of the Y during one or more of the periods. Scholarship aid enabled seven boys to engage in healthful summer activities at the camp while three partially handicapped children also attended in limited capacity.

A record total of 245 different boys attended Camp Chickami, the Y day camp located in Wayland, during its twelfth season. The staff of 24 men conducted the many camping activities as well as three Parents' Nights programs in which 750 attendances were recorded. The Chickami campers were provided transportation to and from camp by two large busses.

Two 1-week trips were the focal points of Camp Vagabond's fourth season with 16 different boys in attendance. The first trip was taken through parts of Rhode Island, Connecticut, Eastern New York and Southern Massachusetts. The second trip was taken

Auryansen Files Papers in Race For W2 Alderman

Winslow C. Auryansen of 27 Jenison street, Newtonville, has filed nomination papers as a candidate for Alderman-at-large from Ward 2.

A lifelong resident of Newton, he is a graduate of Newton High School and of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N.Y., Class of 1928. He is a vice-president of the Huse-Liberty Mica Company, located in the new Peabody Industrial Center on Route 128.

He has been active in the Community Chest and United Fund drives, holding such positions as residential chairman and chairman of advanced gifts for Newtonville. He has also been an active church worker; he has been chairman of the Every Member Canvass, has worked on the Finance Committee, and has served as church moderator.

He is the president of the Newtonville Improvement Association, a group which he has served in various other capacities in the past.

In 1938 he joined the Highland Glee Club of Newton and has sung with them since that time.

Although he has not sought office for himself previously, he has worked in behalf of many successful candidates, on both the state and local level. Now he feels that he has the time to play a more active and personal part.

Mr. Auryansen is married and has one daughter, Mary, a junior at Newton High School.

Jonathan Kusko, Bowen School, afternoon.

These Building Chairmen are organizing the committees which will assist them in planning the programs for all age levels from kindergarten through the intermediate and higher grades; and Mrs. Hovgaard states that progress reports of meetings will begin to reach her office in City Hall within a few days.

The 11 passers in the order of eligibility are: (1) Joseph A. Arnold; (2) Raymond J. Vachon, Jr.; (3) Leonard C. Farrell; (4) Aubrey F. Hill, Jr.; (5) Edward J. Pendergast; (6) William F. DeFlorio; (7) James W. Carson; (8) Joseph A. Mason; (9) Richard T. Dunn; (10) Domenick J. DeMajo; (11) Donald F. O'Neill.

The Civil Service Commission said that 11 officers attained passing marks in both the written, medical and physical strength tests. On the written exams the officers made an excellent showing with 23 out of 30 who took the tests passing. The medical requirements and strength tests served to cut the total passing to 11.

The list, which has a life span of two years, will be used by Police Chief Philip Purell in making promotions. Presently there are approximately half a dozen vacancies to be filled.

A defeat at the hands of Cranston wouldn't be a crusher to Newton's hopes for a big season but even a loss to an out-of-State team could be damaging to prestige in the ranking of top teams hereabouts later on in the season.

The communities which opposed the MTA purchase of the B & A property at the August meeting were Newton, Brookline, Belmont, Cambridge and Watertown.

Mayor Whitmore cited the absence of any convincing information that the rapid transit line would draw enough patronage to avoid a deficit and brought out that no consideration has been given as to what commuter service, if any, will be abandoned on the main line of the B & A.

He further said that no study has been conducted to ascertain what effect the extension of the

He said he will follow the action there carefully and, if necessary, make suggestions for the revisions of the plans.

"The city will follow the matter carefully through the next two stages," Whitmore emphasized.

Mayor Whitmore cited the absence of any convincing information that the rapid transit line would draw enough patronage to avoid a deficit and brought out that no consideration has been given as to what commuter service, if any, will be abandoned on the main line of the B & A.

He further said that no study has been conducted to ascertain what effect the extension of the

Legion Post 48 To Hold Dinner Thursday Night

An invitation to members of the Newton Post 48 of the American Legion to bring members their families and their friends to a lobster dinner to be served at the City Hall cafeteria at 6:30 next Thursday night, Oct. 17, was issued today by Post commander Monte G. Basbas.

The dinner will start at 6:30 p.m. It will be followed by the showing of a film on Red Sox slugger star Ted Williams' most recent fishing exploits. Tickets are priced at $1.25 each.

Commander Basbas, who is also Newton's city clerk, expressed the hope that the Legion post members will arrange for their wives, children and friends to attend the dinner and see the film. "I am sure it will be a very enjoyable evening," said Basbas.

MTA Plans To Take Entire Tract of Land at Riverside For 1350-Car Parking Area

The MTA is planning to take an entire tract of 981,000 sq. feet of land at Riverside, which was to be used as the site for a multi-million dollar building which would have yielded the city an estimated $100,000 a year in new taxes.

That was learned by The Graphic today after MTA officials had filed plans with the State Department of Public Utilities for the proposed extension of their rapid transit facilities over the Highland Branch of the Boston & Albany railroad.

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., met with the MTA trustees on Monday and urged them to explore the possibility of taking only a portion of the land at Riverside, the only big tract in the city which is now available for industrial development.

While the MTA officials agreed to study the matter, they submitted their plans to

C. of C. Arranges Oratory Courses for Business Folk

If you spot members of the Newton Chamber of Commerce resturing and giving voice to silvery tones every time they set before a mirror in the weeks ahead—don't call the man in the white coat.

They are probably getting ready for the day when they'll be able to align themselves right alongside Demosthenes and William Jennings Bryan in the oratory department.

At a special meeting of the Chamber's board of directors recently, it was voted unanimously to sponsor the Dale Carnegie human relations and public speaking course.

This course is held in many of the larger cities of New England and will be offered to all business men and women in Newton. A banner enrollment is anticipated. Many firms and individuals have indicated their approval of the idea.

Plans call for a course to begin in November and continue for 14 weeks, one night a week.

Justin T. Horan, the newly appointed executive director of the chamber, stated at the conclusion of the meeting, that the interest, willingness to work and chamber spirit which the directors have shown, combined with a program of work which is representative of Newton business, will create a Newton Chamber of Commerce effort which should be second to none, in the Greater Boston area.

The annual election of officers of the Newton Chamber will take place next Tuesday, October 15, at a luncheon meeting. All interested Chamber members are cordially invited to attend.

The Rev. Mr. Adams told the city fathers that the executive committee of the Council, which is composed of 24 churches in the city, had gone on record against Sunday bowling.

Objection to the proposal also was voiced by the Rev. Russell H. Bishop of the First St. Sebastian's Country Day School this week announced the start of construction of the long-awaited artificial skating rink planned by the school on the crest of Nonantum Hill.

The new rink, expected to be one of the finest and most modern in the country, will be named for Robert N. Daley, Jr., one-time outstanding athlete at St. Sebastian's, who died a year ago.

In architectural design it will blend with the beauty of the surrounding scholastic structures and campus, Athletic Director Vincent G. Murphy announced.

The rink will be the second top-ranking artificial ice surface in Newton. Boston College

5 Hospital Fires Under State and Local Probes

State and local authorities have combined forces to track down a firebug believed to have started five fires at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital—one of which caused $8500 to the nurses' dormitory.

The probes have not ruled out the possibility the firebug is a woman. They declined to discuss evidence which caused them to suspect the torch bearer is a female. They declined to indicate the identity of any suspect they have in mind.

Police Chief Philip Purcell, Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., and Captain Gerald McCarthy of the State Fire Marshal's office all emphasize the hospital personnel is on the alert against further attempts to fire hospital property.

Each stressed the safety of patients is being fully protected on a 24-hour basis, with hospital authorities, police and fire departments cooperating 100 percent to make certain that the hospital is not jeopardized.

The alert will remain in effect until the mystery of the sudden outbreak of fires has been cleared and whoever responsible is in custody.

The series of fires began on Sunday night.

At 7:30 p.m., Miss Liane Lane, 19-year-old freshman student nurse, saw flames in the Dorset House, a one-story wooden structure, containing eight rooms. Miss Lane was in the Pratt House, a nurse dormitory, 40 feet from Dorset.

Newton firefighters were joined in the three-hour fight to control the fire by a company from Wellesley. Newton fire engines 2, 4, 5 and 6, and ladders 1 and 2 participated with their full companies.

The Dorset is an eight-room structure. Only three of its

Snappy Cheerleaders In Gay Regalia Spark Games

October's bright blue weather brings forth no bright fall blossoms than the nine pretty cheerleaders that bloom on Newton High School's football field on game Saturdays.

Dazzling in their bright-hued outfits, these attractive Newton misses urge the Tigers on to greater glory with a snappy performance that results from long and arduous hours of practice.

Under the live-wire leadership of Captain Barbara Bruce, 193 Fuller street, West Newton, the six seniors and three juniors are put through their paces every afternoon except Friday, when they take part in a rally at the school. They have to master 30 basic cheers, and "we improvise on them" says Barbara. "The most popular ones are short and noisy," she adds.

The girls are under the supervision of the physical education department at NHS, with Miss Ruth Frazier acting as their faculty adviser. Their costumes of orange and black make an effective contrast against the brilliant fall green of the football field.

Their outfits consist of short black skirts, knife-pleated in orange, brilliant orange jackets each bearing one letter in the word NEWTON, white socks and sneakers.

This year's roster includes:

Diana Gernes of Newton Lower Falls, a senior who is also on the Rally Committee and in the Girls Chorus and Music Club.

Ellen Kahn of Chestnut Hill, another senior who is vice-president of the Modern Dance Club.

Aldermen and Mayor Clash Over Right of City Help To Hold Elective Offices

By a vote of 14-3, the Newton Board of Aldermen, this week overrode a veto by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., and stood by their action in banning Aldermanic members from holding another salaried municipal job.

In effect, the vote again throws into question the candidacy of three city workers who are seeking election to the board in the Nov. 5 municipal election.

Mayor

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., in his veto measure to the Board of Aldermen expressed the conviction that the adoption of a ban now preventing city employees from serving on the Aldermanic Board would be tantamount to changing the rules after the game had started.

The permissive legislative act, which the Aldermen accepted raising a barrier against municipal workers holding elective office in Newton, has been on the statute books for more than 100 years, but has never been put into effect in this city.

They are William H. Prentice, Stuart M. Spaulding, Earle D. Wood, William P. Ripley, Hirsh Sharf, John P. Nixon, William R. Mattson, Carleton Merrill and Warren A. Sutherland.

In their statement they said:

The New Newton Community Concert Series begins, Sunday, October 13 at Newton High School at 3 p.m., an hour earlier than previously announced.

Thomas Scherman will appear as conductor with the New York Little Orchestra Society in a program which will include Vronsky and Babib, duo-pianists, Fay Emerson, and a wide variety of music ranging from the pure classicism of Mozart to Saint Saens light and humorous Carnival of the Animals.

The gala event climaxes a year of planning, and is eagerly awaited by more than 1000 members who joined the Newton Community Concert Association last May.

The rink will be constructed on the site of the former natural ice rink to the right of the gymnasium as one approaches

Aldermen

Nine members of the Board of Aldermen, who on Monday night voted to override a veto of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., and accept a law prohibiting a city employee from serving on the Aldermanic Board would be turned down the request for a zoning change at their meeting two weeks earlier, but Alderman Earle D. Wood had filed a motion for reconsideration of the action.

They received an Associate in Science degree for completing the three-year nursing program, the only such curriculum in a junior college in the United States. The program is in affiliation with the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston, and also the Boston Lying-In Children's Medical Center and Mass. Mental Health Center.

Dr. Egon H. Kattwinkel, chief of cardiology at Newton-Wellesley Hospital, was commencement speaker. Presentation of class pins was made by Miss Constance Milner, coordinator of Lasell Nursing Program. Also participating in the graduation exercises were Miss Dorothy Vernstrom, director of Peter Bent Brigham School of Nursing; Mrs. John Van Etten, Lasell's academic dean; and 26 undergraduates in the nursing program.

NVA'S Diabetic Teaching Course Opens October 24

Diabetes Mellitus is a chronic disorder known to affect approximately one million people in the United States. It is estimated that there is another million persons who have diabetes and do not know it. These are the persons who often come to their doctor first for treatment of infections that won't heal.

Had they gone for a regular physical examination earlier, the disease might have been detected and the complication prevented.

Visiting Nurse Associations also have noticed that diabetics requesting care usually do so after some complications have sent them seeking help. Why lock the barn door after the horse is stolen? How much better it would be if people took advantage of the medical and educational facilities available in the community for diagnosis and health education.

Dedham Group to Sponsor Tour of Homes October 17

Newton residents will be interested to learn of the "Open Homes Day" to be held in Dedham on Thursday, October 17, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. This interesting tour is being sponsored by the Women's Republican Club of Dedham.

In addition to six Dedham residences to be opened to the public on that day, the home of Senator Leslie B. Cutler of Needham will be included. During the afternoon hours, tea will be served at Mrs. Cutler's.

Among the Dedham homes to be shown will be the famous Fairbanks House, 511 East street. Built in 1636, it is the oldest frame dwelling in the United States, and is a well-known attraction to thousands of tourists every year.

until now. It was originally enacted in 1851.

Some members of the present Board of Aldermen also have served with city employees.

In his veto message to the Aldermen, outlining his objection to the ban, Mayor Whitmore said:

"I am returning without my approval Board Order No. 1059-57 adopted by your honorable board Sept. 23, 1957.

"This order provides for the immediate acceptance by the city of Section 7 of Chapter 39 of the General Laws. Section 7 reads as follows: 'The Mayor or an Alderman of a city which adopts this section may at the same time hold any other office under the city government to which he may be chosen except one of emolument.'

"He has been commended on a number of occasions for the thorough job he has done on the municipal budget.

Wood was originally elected to the Board of Aldermen in November, 1949.

In the intervening eight years he has served on the franchise and licenses committee, the public buildings committee, the street traffic committee, the ward lines committee, the education committee and the finance committee. He became the head of the latter committee at the start of 1952.

His recommendations concerning the approval or rejection of proposed expenditures invariably are followed by the other aldermen.

A resident of Newton for more than a half century, Alderman Wood is a partner in the Wood-Evans insurance agency, is also in the real estate business and is treasurer of the Columbian Cooperative Bank in Cambridge.

He has one son, Willard, who graduated from the Newton schools, and from Dartmouth College.

deGREGORIS

Rev. deGregoris Named Aide At Andover Newton

The Rev. Vincent deGregoris, graduate of Andover Newton Theological School, and formerly assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, Watertown, has been appointed associate director of public relations at the Andover Newton school.

Mr. deGregoris comes to the Newton Centre school from the assistant pastorate of the North Shore Baptist Church, Chicago.

Previous to his studies at Newton, he graduated from the Eastern Baptist College and Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, both in Philadelphia. He graduated cum laude with his B.D. degree from Andover Newton Theological School and received his S.T.M. in the field of Old Testament.

He married the former Charlotte Odessa Spitzer of College Park, Md., in 1953. The couple have one daughter, Yolanda.

The rules of a game after it had started. Three paid city employees have announced their candidates for Alderman. They have incurred campaign expenses, organized supporters and obtained signatures on nomination papers. Their names have been legally qualified and certified for inclusion on the official ballot in the forthcoming municipal election.

"My objections to the order are not based upon an opinion, consideration or judgment of the merits of the provisions of Section 7. Rather, my veto is dictated by the circumstances and occurrences which have immediately preceded your adoption of the order, the situation which currently exists and the unfortunate consequences which may result if the restrictive provisions of section 7 become effective at this time during an election period.

"The imposition of the provisions of Section 7 at this time would mean changing the rules during the course of an election campaign. Such an action would be similar to changing

"In essence the section provides that a person cannot be a Mayor or an Alderman and simultaneously hold another position in the city government for which he receives remuneration.

"My objections to the order are not based upon an opinion, consideration or judgment of the merits of the provisions of Section 7. Rather, my veto is dictated by the circumstances and occurrences which have immediately preceded your adoption of the order, the situation which currently exists and the unfortunate consequences which may result if the restrictive provisions of section 7 become effective at this time during an election period.

"They have done all this in good faith and in accordance with existing requirements. The acceptance of Section 7 at this time would change the eligibility rules and require them to give up their paid jobs if they are elected and serve as Aldermen. In fact, they cannot now legally withdraw their names from the official ballot even if they might wish to do so.

"To accept the provisions of Section 7 now, in view of all the circumstances, would be not only manifestly unfair to the affected candidates, but also very confusing and misleading to the voters of the city. It might well result in there being vacancies in Aldermanic offices on January 1 next.

"Further, the question may properly be raised as to the legality of the vote by which your honorable board adopted the order accepting Section 7. You will recall that the vote was taken by Australian ballot which may not fulfill the requirement's stated in the last sentence of Section 13 of the city charter, which reads as follows: 'All meetings shall be public except when action is taken upon appointments and re-

"In my opinion, it is unwise and contrary to the best interests of the city and its people to accept the provisions of Section 7 of chapter 39 of the General Laws without prior public notice of the possibility or intention of doing so."

"Our action should not be construed as passing on the qualifications of these candidates in any way, but we feel we must make it clear that the rights of the public must supersede those of the individual."

The only three Aldermen who voted to sustain the Mayor's veto on the issue were President Wendell R. Bauckman and Aldermen Harry H. Ham and Charles H. Cosgrove.

At the annual kick-off meeting on October 3 of their campaign to aid the blind, Newton Lions had as guest speakers Dr. Howard F. Both men are engaged in medical research on blindness due to diabetes, a project financed by a grant from the Massachusetts Lions.

Dr. Root informed the club and their guests that one out of every four persons carries the capacity to transmit diabetes, and listed the symptoms of that disease, as follows: increased frequency of thirst, appetite and urination, and blurred vision.

A pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m. in the parish house of the Church of the Open Word in Newtonville will precede the installation. Rev. William Clark, minister of youth at the Eliot Congregational Church, will be the speaker.

New officers to be installed are: Robert Neilson, president; Marilyn Clapper, vice president; Helga Muelder, recording secretary; Judith LeBaron, corresponding secretary; Cynthia Davis, treasurer.

Under the guidance of Rev. Thomas Reed, the organization sponsors a program of events for all Protestant youth in Newton.

Aldermen

"We, the undersigned members of the Board of Aldermen, wish to enter on the public record our strong feelings in the matter of acceptance of Chapter 39, Section 7 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth.

"This act, in the opinion of our city solicitor, prevents any one, receiving wages or salary from the city, from serving as an Alderman in that city.

"We believe it is ethically wrong for a man to be simultaneously a legislator and an employee of the same subdivision of government. This practice is expressly forbidden in the federal government and is prevented to a degree at least by our city charter. Commonwealth law is available to enable cities to prevent violations of this basic premise. Let us examine this premise.

"It is fundamentally wrong for a legislator to be in the position of establishing his own rate of pay, his own working conditions, and his working environment. It is also wrong for him to establish the pay and working conditions of his associates, his supervisors, or his department head.

"A city employee could not truly represent the electors and taxpayers on any issues before the board. As it will be unethical for a city employee to act on many of our problems, he in effect could not represent electors properly. He would also be unable to serve the board adequately in much of the committee work so necessary in sound city government.

"3. At best it would be difficult for a department head or supervisor to have a proper supervisor-employee relationship with an employee serving on the Board of Aldermen.

"The Board of Aldermen has the right and responsibility as prescribed by State law of determining the qualifications of its members. Any employee may stand for election and if elected, and otherwise properly qualified, may serve, provided he terminates his employment before being seated. Based on recent unfortunate experiences in some cities and towns, which have permitted employees to serve on their governing bodies, we felt that the public interest demanded our immediate action. This action was taken with all reasonable haste after nominating papers had been filed by city employees. We realize that this is an awkward time to act, but the issue is so serious that we cannot delay taking this stand.

"Our action should not be construed as passing on the qualifications of these candidates in any way, but we feel we must make it clear that the rights of the public must supersede those of the individual."

The only three Aldermen who voted to sustain the Mayor's veto on the issue were President Wendell R. Bauckman and Aldermen Harry H. Ham and Charles H. Cosgrove.

the State Utilities Commission only a little more than 24 hours after they had conferred with Whitmore.

They obviously did not have time to make even a cursory survey of the situation during the period between the time they met with Whitmore and the following day when they submitted their plans to the State Utilities Commission.

Mayor Whitmore, in discussing the matter today, emphasized that he does not intend to assume the role of instructionalist to the contemplated MTA extension but is simply endeavoring to fulfill his own responsibility to protect the interests of the city of which he is chief executive.

At the same time, however, it was learned that the MTA trustees are now discovering that they are facing the very problems which Whitmore warned them would arise.

One of those problems involved the means of getting persons travelling south on Route 128 to use the proposed new rapid transit line.

So far no solution to that problem has been devised. The indications are that many of those motorists will use the main branch of the B & A instead of the MTA rapid transit line.

Mayor Whitmore contacted Chairman David M. Brackman of the Public Utilities Commission and asked permission to examine the plans filed by the MTA.

While Brackman assented to the request, it seems plain that the Utilities Commission will merely give a perfunctory approval to the MTA application.

Brackman has indicated that his commission does not even intend to hold a public hearing on the proposition.

"This isn't the kind of matter that would be helped by a public hearing," Brackman asserted.

That is interpreted as meaning that the MTA plans already are virtually assured of approval by the Utilities Commission.

Newton's Halloween celebration being planned for the last day of this month already shapes up as the most enjoyable ever arranged for the city's school children.

That is the appraisal of Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, chairman of the program committee, which is lining up the festivities for the occasion.

She explained that her opinion is based not only on the fact that more than 16,000 school children of all ages will participate in the Halloween fun but also on the interest and enthusiasm displayed by the members of the various committees working on arrangements.

More than 600 pupils in the 7th and 8th grades at the Meadowbrook Junior High School are expected to attend the parties being arranged for them, according to Mrs. Samuel Freeman, building chairman. Festivities there will include dancing, movies, games and a chamber of horrors.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kuske expect 425 children at the Bowen School celebration. They will range from kindergartners through sixth graders. Committee chairmen assist are: Mrs. Louis Belinfante, program; Mrs. Isabelle Carson, refreshments; Mr. and Mrs. John Taglienti, favors; and Mrs. David Maples, publicity and finance.

The Franklin School parties, in charge of Miss Marion Mortarty, will be attended by about 600 boys and girls from the first to sixth grade.

William Jones, chairman for the Davis School, reports that there will be continuous music by a roving guitar player, movies, games and a House of Horrors.

One of the larger affairs will be held at the Peirce School, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sheely, who predict at least 460 children will attend. A parade is scheduled as well as movies and games.

At the Lincoln-Eliot School parties, Mrs. Louis A. Brazeau,

chairman, reports movies will be shown, games played in individual classrooms and favors awarded for costumes. Committee members are: Mrs. Paul Sanwald, Mrs. Arthur Newman, Mrs. Philip Bloom, Mrs. H. Arsenault, Mrs. Ralph Hamill, Mrs. Kenneth Norton and Mrs. Hartwell.

At the Countryside School celebration, Mrs. Norman Leader, chairman, announces that 485 boys and girls of kindergarten age through the sixth grade will be on hand. Assisting Mrs. Leader are: Mrs. Charles Henes, Mrs. Melvin Stavis, Mrs. Harry Gootman, Mrs. Edmund Boisclair, Mrs. Ned Carpenter, Dr. Charles Bonner and Leon Tobin.

About 350 pupils will participate in the Beethoven School big program is being planned with movies, a carnival and social dancing.

Philip L. Lowe, chairman of the party at the Weeks, Jr. High School for seventh and eighth grade students, reports an expected attendance of around 500. The program will comprise informal dancing and the first showing of a full length movie.

A separate party will be attended by between 250 and 275 ninth grade students of the Weeks, Jr. High School at the Newton Centre Woman's Club.

Approximately 170 boys and girls from the seventh grade will gather at the YMCA for a party under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. F. Goldsmith. A

Learn How To Get The Most Value For The Money You Spend On Meat

Let's have a MEAT QUIZ!

Q. What is the highest recognized agency which grades meat?

A. Government licensed meat graders. These experts judge meat and stamp the correct grade right on the meat. This grade is the consumer's guide to quality.

Q. How many grades of Beef are there?

A. There are seven U.S. grades of Beef, Veal and Lamb. Prime, Choice, Good, Commercial, Utility, Canner, and Cutter. Alphabet grades such as "AA" and "A" are not government grades. When you read a Food Ad saying Meat is "Western Steer Beef" — don't be confused. Unless the Ad specifies U. S. Grade "Prime or Choice" — you may be getting Western Steer Beef of inferior quality.

Q. What does the round purple stamp on the meat mean?

A. It means government inspected and passed as wholesome food. This inspection is important but it tells nothing about the meat's tenderness and flavor — only that it is wholesome food.

Q. What is meat aging?

A. Meat aging is the holding and conditioning of meat until it reaches eating perfection by its own natural processes — instead of sending it immediately to market.

Q. Will all meat take aging?

A. No. Pork and Veal shouldn't be aged and poor beef and lamb are not improved by aging. But top U. S. Government grades of beef and lamb such as selected by our buyers do benefit.

Q. Does aging improve meat tenderness and flavor?

A. Yes. During the aging of fine beef and lamb under proper conditions — (correctly controlled humidity and temperature) — the flavor-carrying extracts in the meat tissues develop and permeate the meat. Aging softens the tough fibre and tissues — makes for tender eating.

Q. What do you look for when buying beef?

A. Look for heavy, white (not yellow) firm fat with white streaks or grains of fat running thru the meat. This factor more than any other is the reason for good beef.

Q. How can this difference be proved?

A. Select your favorite cut WABAN Blue Ribbon Meat. Take it home. Cook it and serve it as you prefer. Eat it and judge its value in tenderness, juiciness and flavor. You'll be convinced it's THE FINEST MEAT SOLD ANYWHERE. You just can't miss. Our years of buying experience assure you of only the best.

Raw Deals and Bullets

The aftermath of the slaying of Merrill Lovinger hardly provides much inspiration for the manner in which our system of jurisprudence works out when zealots convince themselves a particular law does not meet their approval.

Within a period of a few days an official of the Rhode Island system of probation and parole voiced his opinion concerning the Massachusetts efforts to set aside the will of a jury.

He said that Henry P. Arsenault, Jr., who fired the bullet which took the young attorney's life in the sanctity of a Newton home got a "raw deal" from the Governor's Council in Massachusetts.

Counsel for Arsenault in their arguments before the court have been no less vehement in their choice of adjectives. They have every right to present every single argument in behalf of their client. They have every right to exhaust every avenue of law open to them in obtaining justice for their client. That is as it should be.

Yet, as the question of final disposition of the case remains in doubt, the ordinary man on the street has good reason to wonder about the meaning of due process of the law and the speed of justice.

He must be forgiven, too, if he wonders whether or not the law really considers that young Mr. Lovinger was given a raw deal and whether or not the invasion of his father-in-law's home was outrageous.

He wasn't given much time to defend himself. He wasn't given an opportunity to explain the fine nuances of the law. He wasn't given an opportunity to sit down and talk at length with the armed invaders.

If he had he might have succeeded in a long drawn-out, possibly often postponed series of conferences convinced the invaders they were in the wrong house and that it's wrong to kill.

Maybe, he got one break. Death was nearly instantaneous.

Bullets have an instantaneous effect. At the present moment at least they seem to have a much swifter effect than the verdict of juries and the cold type that's in the law books.

Political Overtones

With Thompson wielding the Speaker's gavel instead of Skerry, Governor Furcolo should have a much better working relationship with the House of Representatives next year than he did this year and a much brighter prospect for getting his program through that branch of the Legislature.

It's conceivable that it might even mean the difference between victory and defeat for the Governor's sales tax bill as far as the House is concerned.

A Speaker can do a great deal to achieve the passage of a measure. He can contrive to put a matter to a vote at the time it will have the best—or least—chance of enactment.

He wields considerable influence with the members of his own party and particularly with the committee chairmen whom he appoints.

Skerry didn't battle the sales tax bill publicly, as Democratic State Senate Leader John E. Powers did, but he was personally against the proposal, and that in itself made an impression upon wavering House Democrats.

Thompson, who was one of the leaders in Furcolo's campaign last year, was the Governor's chief spokesman in the House this year. He led the sales tax fight on the floor of the House and did a pretty effective job.

As matters now shape up, Thompson will be the Speaker next year, and Representative Charles J. Artesani of Brighton, who also backed Furcolo on the sales tax issue, will be named by Thompson as his Democratic floor leader. Artesani opposed Skerry for the Speaker ship both this year and in 1955.

An interesting sidelight to the maneuver which will place Furcolo lieutenants in the two top posts of the House is that Representative John T. Tynan of South Boston, close friend and political ally of Senator Powers, is being bypassed.

Tynan is now the Democratic whip and assistant floor leader, but Artesani will jump over him to become the majority floor leader. Whether Tynan, who opposed the sales tax bill, will continue to serve as assistant floor leader, is uncertain.

Neither Powers nor Tynan has made any statement publicly about the shunting of Tynan to one side, but it's a pretty safe guess that it will not improve relations between Powers and Furcolo.

Governor Furcolo has not disclosed whether he will resume his fight for a sales tax at the 1958 legislative session.

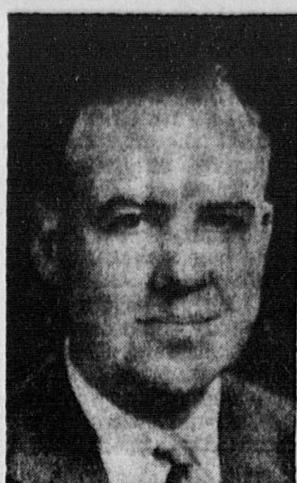

He has indicated that he has not made a final decision on the matter and that if he does decide to make another drive on the issue, he would make no official announcement in advance of submitting a message to the Legislature.

A guess now would be that with Thompson pulling the strings for him in the House, Furcolo might be able to get a sales tax measure through that body.

But he would face the prospect of defeat in the Senate if the bill were in the same form as the one he sought to have enacted this year.

Not only would Furcolo still encounter all-out opposition from Senator Powers, but many of the Republican Senators would not vote for a bill which provides for a tax on machinery because of the fear that it would be a blow to industrial expansion and cause a loss of jobs and employment opportunities.

If the Governor were to revise that phase of the bill, however, he probably would have a better than even

First Methodist Church To Hold 3-Day Observance

A three-day celebration is planned on Thursday, Friday and Saturday (Oct. 17, 18 and 20) by the First Methodist Church of Newton Upper Falls to mark completion of its newly designed Chancel and renovated Sanctuary for its 125th anniversary. The church, one of Newton's landmarks, was built in 1832.

"Music and Messages out of the Past," will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday night. The program will start with "Organ Memories" by Mrs. Louis Remond, followed by "Songs out of the Past" by the Anniversary Choir.

Dr. Francis D. Taylor and Rev. G. Vaughn Shedd, past ministers of First Methodist Church, will recall "Only Yesterday" and "The Good Old Days". Following the "Coffee Break" and "the beautiful Anniversary Cake" served by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, historic pictures and films will be shown by Tom Wildman and Edward Lupien.

On Friday, General Chairman Herbert B. Downs, has planned for a catered New England Dinner to be served in the Parish Hall at 6:30 p.m. Ticket Chairman Edward H. Gittines sets the price at $1.75 for adults and $1.45 for children. Invited guests include Mr. Warner Danforth of Woburn, Conference Lay Leader, Ernest O. Seyfarth, president of the Newton Council of Churches, former pastor and Albert M. Krieger, architect of the Sanctuary Renovation. Many fifty year members will also be honored.

The speaker Friday evening will be the Rev. Sam Hedrick of Newton Centre, an ordained minister, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church of Cherokee, Kansas; the E. Gloucester Massachusetts Methodist Church, president of the Meadowbrook Junior High School PTA, director of supervised Field Work and Professor of Practical Theology at the Boston University School of Theology.

The dedication of the new Sanctuary on Sunday morning (Oct. 20) from 10:45 a.m. until noon has been planned by Rev. Henry Beukelman, present pastor of the church, and brings to a close the three-day event, with the anthems and responses by the Youth and Anniversary Choirs. Bishop John Wesley Lord, who is on the Executive Committee and on the Board of Trustees of Boston University, will give the Anniversary sermon.

Garden Club to Meet Tomorrow

The first fall meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be GARDEN CLUB DAY tomorrow (Friday) at the Second Chord Parish House in West Newton. There will be a dessert and social hour at 1 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. C. David Gordon, Hospitality chairman. Hostesses for the day are Mr. C. Roy Rook and Mrs. Sidney R. Williamson. Presiding at the tea and coffee tables will be Mrs. Harold G. Carter, president of the Educational Garden Club, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, and Mrs. Edwin M. Wolley.

Garden Club members will exhibit many unusual and original floral and plant arrangements in the Tea Room, and also will decorate the stage and entertainment hall. The regular business meetings at 2 p.m. will be conducted by the club's new president, Mrs. Thomas F. Ford, who incidentally is an enthusiastic Garden Club member and past president of that group.

chance of accomplishing the passage of a sales tax next year.

That, of course, is strictly in the field of speculation. Furcolo himself must decide whether he wants to make another fight on the sales tax issue in an election year.

If he does elect to resume the battle, he then must decide what kind of bill he will submit, and it is reasonable to assume that he would not offer the same measure that was rejected this year.

What both the Governor and the legislators do in 1958 will be carefully weighed against the shadow that will be cast by the coming 1958 election—a shadow which will grow larger as the year advances.

Local Fire Dept. Complimented on Home Inspection

Now it's the Newton Fire Department which is attracting national attention. Recently educators found a lively, comprehensive and quite praiseworthy account of the way the city's schools are conducted. The account was contained in an article which has had national circulation among school and college faculties.

The National Fire Protection Association's magazine, "Firemen," has a wide circulation among firefighters throughout the U. S. A feature story in the current issue speaks glowingly of Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., and the local fire department's "In-Service Inspection" program. "Well-Planned Dwelling Inspection Program" is the title of the article.

King James Bible Readings Feature Sunday's Service

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings from the King James version of the Bible will include the following from Psalms (67:12): "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selections will also be read (206:26-28:30): "Instead of God sending sickness and death, He destroys them, and brings to light immortality . . . God does not cause man to sin, to be sick, or to die."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (12:28): "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death."

Pension Abuses

Editor,

The Newton Graphic:

The Legislature in its closing moments recently ruled that those who have been benefiting from disability pension abuses can keep their ill-gotten gains and continue to take a free ride at the expense of the taxpayers. The Legislature also passed an amendment to prevent such abuses in the future. Simply stated, this means that the House and Senate publicly admitted that serious abuses do exist but that they would not correct them as to do so would reduce the present income of many personal friends or possibly voters.

Also, this legislative action appears to be a direct attempt to thwart the will of the people expressed by the thousands of signatures which have already been submitted to the Initiative Petition which will bring about this long-needed reform.

Accordingly, the Massachusetts Citizens Committee has only begun to fight. This has thus become even more clearly than before a moral and ethical issue. All that is needed is that we obtain sufficient signatures. The issue will be placed plainly on the ballot next year and the people will speak. The Legislature has done half the job—we must do the rest.

Neil R. Ayer, Secretary Massachusetts Citizens Committee.

Particularly interesting is the fact that these girls are chosen on the basis of their school grades as much as anything else. Almost 50 girls tried out in the late spring in a series of preliminary eliminations, and the varsity group was selected by their rating in school marks and in good citizenship as well as their appearance and performance. Not only do Newton's cheerleaders have to be lithe and attractive—they must have excellent grades as well.

Thus far Newton's football eleven have turned in a more than creditable performance on the field, and if the dedicated zeal of its nine cheerleaders will help at all, it should go on to victory after victory in the '57-'58 season. Wherever they travel, it's a certainty that these nine personable young ladies will be ambassadors of goodwill for the city of Newton.

Appeal

Attorney John F. Kelley of Cambridge in taking Arsenault's appeal to the federal court argued that the action of the Executive Council in commuting the sentences of Arsenault's two co-defendants in the murder comprised "cruel and abusive punishment" for his client.

"There was no distinction in the jury between either one of the three defendants," Kelley told the court. "I feel that you and your court would make no such distinction."

Kelley charged a violation of due process and argued that the U. S. Supreme Court has said that where a board or executive department is required to hold public hearings, there is a certain standard which must be followed, there is a violation of due process."

Judge McCarthy said he has arranged his schedule so that he can consider the appeal. He will decide whether a federal court has jurisdiction on the case.

some sage advice, based on long years of experience, to Newton residents on precautions for preventing fires and on things to do and not to do if a blaze should start.

Householders who have leaves they want to get rid of were urged to stop at a fire station, buy a burlap bag for 15 cents and use it as receptacle for putting out the leaves for the rubbish collectors.

The collectors are under instructions to empty the burlap bags into the trucks so that householders may continue using it as long as the need exists.

"It will be an investment in safety," observed the fire chief.

Fire Chief Perkins made it plain that he would prefer that householders not undertake to burn their leaves even in incinerators.

But for those who insist on burning leaves, a closed incinerator, with someone constantly in attendance, is the only method that is sanctioned by the fire department.

Chief Perkins reported that, in the in-service inspection, which was started last June 24, is making Newton a much safer place in which to live. He said the principal items in which his department is interested are:

1. The removal of papers, rags, rubbish, old mattresses, excelsior, volatile flammable fluids and compounds.

2. Clean and safer hallways and stairs so they may be used safely at all times, especially in an emergency.

3. Safe and correct storage of fuel oils and gasolines. (Permits are required.)

4. Safe electrical wiring that is free from overloads or damaged wires.

And if a fire should start in your house, what is the first thing you should do?

"Get out," answers Chief

Perkins, "and get everyone else out at the same time."

The chief recommends these other rules as important to remember if a fire should strike:

"Be ready with different escape routes from any room in your house."

"Feel a door before opening; if hot, block it with furniture and seal with wet towels and blankets; try to get out another way."

"Never jump from upper-story windows except as last resort; wait for firemen."

"Hold your breath if you have to dash through smoke and flame; and remember that the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room."

"Once out, don't ever go back into a burning building—smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly; children very often go back into their homes, so keep them restrained."

"Get medical treatment at once if you are burned or exposed to smoke; seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can be exceedingly dangerous."

"Call the fire department the instant you're certain that everyone is safely away from the fire—and leave the fire fighting to trained fire-fighters."

"Learn the location of your nearest street Fire Alarm Box. Read the instructions so you will know how to operate it in an emergency."

"Once out, don't ever go back into a burning building—smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly; children very often go back into their homes, so keep them restrained."

"Get medical treatment at once if you are burned or exposed to smoke; seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can be exceedingly dangerous."

Chief Perkins reported that, in the in-service inspection, which was started last June 24, is making Newton a much safer place in which to live. He said the principal items in which his department is interested are:

1. The removal of papers, rags, rubbish, old mattresses, excelsior, volatile flammable fluids and compounds.

2. Clean and safer hallways and stairs so they may be used safely at all times, especially in an emergency.

3. Safe and correct storage of fuel oils and gasolines. (Permits are required.)

4. Safe electrical wiring that is free from overloads or damaged wires.

And if a fire should start in your house, what is the first thing you should do?

"Get out," answers Chief

Perkins, "and get everyone else out at the same time."

The chief recommends these other rules as important to remember if a fire should strike:

"Be ready with different escape routes from any room in your house."

No Decision Yet On Civic Assn. Endorsements

Sitting in executive session on Monday night at the Hunnewell Club, the full board of the Newton Civic Association interviewed 30 candidates for the Board of Aldermen and School Committee, but adjourned their meeting at 1:30 a.m. after six hours without arriving at a decision on the full slate they will endorse.

The non-partisan association, formed six years ago to endorse qualified candidates for municipal office, voted in the early hours of Tuesday morning to recess their meeting until next Sunday night, when deliberations will be resumed in an effort to complete a full endorsement slate.

President Ernest F. Dietz urged all 40 directors and officers to attend Sunday evening's meeting at the Civic Room of the N. E. Advertising Co. in Newton Highlands Square. No candidates are being requested to appear a second time. Dietz expressed "extreme gratefulness" for the opportunity of the association to see and hear so many of the candidates.

Certain candidates won endorsement on Monday night, which requires 30 votes out of a possible 45, but it was decided to withhold their names until a complete slate is selected.

Each candidate was allowed five minutes to address the group, and a brief question period followed each appearance, with members of the Civic Association directing queries to the candidate.

Persons who have appeared before the Board of Aldermen have praised the manner in which Bauckman conducts the proceedings of that body.

He runs the sessions with a firm hand and yet the utmost of courtesy, taking pains to see that everyone has a fair hearing and a chance to speak his or her piece.

Bauckman, who resides at 336 Dedham street in Newton Centre, was vice president of the board in 1946 and 1947 and in 1948 became its president.

He has served as chairman of the veterans' services committee and as a member of the public works, street traffic, finance, and claims and rules committees.

President Bauckman, who has been active in civic affairs in the Oak Hill district for more than a quarter of a century, is a director in the Griess-Pfleger Tanning Co. of Boston. He is a director and chairman of the Budget Committee of the "210 Associates," a philanthropic group of shoe and allied trades, and a director of the Boot and Shoe Club.

He was educated at Norwich University and Boston University. He has two children who graduated from Newton schools.

Waban Girl Aids Cheney Library

A library fund has been established for Boston University's Cheney Library in memory of Mrs. Miriam Stevens Mendelsohn, class of 1927, by her daughter, Miss Jean Mendelsohn of Waban, a 1957 graduate of Boston University, and other members of her family.

The fund will be used to buy books on French literature and criticism which would not ordinarily be acquired by the library.

Mrs. Mendelsohn, a native of Fitchburg, was very fond of the French language, and Miss Mendelsohn, who majored in French at Boston University, is now studying at the University of Grenoble in France.

The fund will be known as the Miriam Stevens Mendelsohn Library Fund.

Families Demand Budget Protection Plan

READ THESE IMPORTANT REASONS WHY HUNDREDS OF FAMILIES CHANGE OVER . . .

On what basis do YOU choose your fuel oil supplier — money saved, finest service or cleanest-burning fuel? Miller Oil gives you all these advantages. PLUS two great new advantages — all for not a penny more! Read them and learn why it will pay you many times over to change to Miller Oil at once!

1. Best fuel saves you money:

Miller delivers Gulf Solar Heat fuel—certified premium grade fuel that gives more heat in every gallon, also burns cleaner to help keep your home spotless and lengthen the life of your heating system!

2. Easiest way to pay:

Miller divides your total estimated fuel bill for a normal heating season into ten equal payments, the first due in October and the last in July. Thus, you avoid paying large fuel bills during the coldest winter months when other bills (like for Christmas shopping) are heavy. If your payments are larger than your actual fuel costs, we refund the balance due you. If your costs are larger than your payments, you will be billed for the difference at the end of the season. And, for the first time, you may include payments for burner service in your Budget Protection Plan.

3. You get deliveries without phoning:

Under the Plan, you don't worry about running out of oil on a cold night, no need to phone for your supply. Miller automatically computes your needs based on the weather and your usual consumption. When Miller's records show you need oil, Miller delivers it—automatically.

4. You get ultra-modern service:

Miller Oil's large staff of factory-trained servicemen assures you of non-stop comfort 'round-the-clock.

5. You get free fuel oil!

Two other meetings for Jan. 16 and May 1 were scheduled. The subject matter of these will be announced at a later date.

The group believes an open house meeting in the fall has established its popularity. Such meetings permit parents to meet faculty members, to obtain an outline of study courses and ground themselves on the matters of homework requirements.

There will be a meeting at 8 p.m. next Thursday, Oct. 17, at the school auditorium designed to cover this phase of PTA work.

Mr. and Mrs. Farren, Halloween co-chairmen, told of plans for that night. As in the past N.H.S. gym will be the scene. There'll be an orchestra for dancing. Refreshments will be served.

JWC Launching Autumn Season

The Newton-Chestnut Hill Chapter of the Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress will launch its Fall season at a meeting next Wednesday, Oct. 16, at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Samuel Silverman, 40 Royce road, Newton Centre. Guest speaker will be Max Kleinbaum, administrative assistant at Brandeis University and director of its adult education program whose subject will be "Educating for Democracy."

Mrs. Jay Gilfix, president, will preside. All members of the Newton-Chestnut Hill Chapter and their friends are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

There will be a meeting at 8 p.m. next Thursday, Oct. 17, at the school auditorium designed to cover this phase of PTA work.

Mr. and Mrs. Farren, Halloween co-chairmen, told of plans for that night. As in the past N.H.S. gym will be the scene. There'll be an orchestra for dancing. Refreshments will be served.

Before the first apparatus arrived on the scene the evacuation of the Pratt and the Ellison Houses was started, all occupants, mostly student nurses being ordered from the buildings.

Neither those buildings nor the main hospital structure were threatened by the Dorset fire.

The next fire on hospital property was discovered early Monday in a grass plot. It was quickly extinguished.

Between 6:30 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. Monday night, Daniel G. Young of the maintenance staff at the hospital was on duty at the main building. There was no fire. About 7 o'clock smoke began to issue from the rear of the hospital. Young traced them to three metal trash containers.

He grabbed a garden hose and began the work of extinguishing the fires. About the same time a nurse in the hospital also detected the smoke and telephoned an alarm.

The fires were confined to the three barrels.

According to one of the investigators, Captain Charles E. Walker of the Newton police, there was no evidence that any inflammable materials had been purposely placed in the trash containers. There was also no indication that any inflammable liquids had been used to help give the fires a start.

Following the trash fires, Chief Perkins called the State Fire Marshal's office and Captain McCarthy was assigned to the investigation.

The situation had been complicated Monday morning when a box alarm was accidentally sounded by workmen repairing an alarm box after the Sunday night fire.

At no time during the series of alarms and excitement outside the hospital were patients or personnel disturbed or excited. The hospital's work went along as though everything was normal.

BULL MARKET AHEAD?

In Bonds — not Stocks.

The more jaundiced one's view of business and stocks, the more confident should be one's attitude toward bonds.

Not in a quarter of a century have bonds been so low-priced as now. Never before were non-taxable issues so alluring to so many investors.

Reasons for these views — with lists of 77 carefully selected issues (5 categories of bonds) — appear in the current WIESENBERGER INVESTMENT REPORT.

Also in this WIR:

100 stocks that are exposed targets for year-end tax selling.

A growth stock that has risen 500% in 10 years and still under-valued.

P.T.A. NOTES

in the Shoe City they'll be facing a team which is seeking to re-establish some of the reputation of an awesome past to its grid laurels.

Those who listed Brockton as a year or two away from resuming its place among the mighty in the Class A councils after its opening defeat (20-6) at the hands of Quincy were obliged to do a little revising after the weekend results.

At Cranston, R. I., Newton showed last Friday that you can't make a mistake and hope to stay in contention with its band of opportunists. The Orangemen gave Cranston a good lacing. It used a few errors of both omission and commission to run up a decisive margin.

Brockton which was taken into camp by Quincy in the opener for both teams bounded back handily from a 20-7 setback in its debut to give LaSalle Academy of Providence its come-uppance by a 20-0 shutout.

Newton drew a crowd of 2000 at Cranston Stadium to prove that it not only capitalizes on mistakes, but that it can take advantage of little shadings in the rules, too.

A number of local fans made the trip to Rhode Island. They were well-rewarded.

Newton drove to a score after returning the game's opening kickoff to its 40. With John Connerney and Frank Zoli collaborating beautifully, the Orangemen had a touchdown almost before the crowd had a chance to get settled.

The second marker came on a break. Steve Robinson, after picking up three yards for Cranston, when he hit hard on the Cranston 32, fumbled. The ball popped out of his arms to be gathered in by Captain Charlie Snider. He never broke stride after picking it out of mid-air until he found himself in the end zone all alone.

Midway through the fourth period Cranston tried again. Bob Gonnella of Cranston fumbled on his own 37. End Phil Moran scooped it off the turf for Newton and went all the way. Phil and Charlie knew they were operating under Rhode Island schoolboy rules. In Massachusetts the ball would have been dead at the point of recovery.

Cranston scored later in the final quarter.

Actually the Newton dominance of play was limited to the first and early part of the second periods. Cranston more than held its own in the last half, except in the mere matter of decorating the score board.

Newton had nine first downs to Cranston's one in the first half. The situation was reversed in the second half, when Cranston rolled up eight first downs to Newton's one.

THOMAS ELECTRIC ORGAN DEMONSTRATED

Cleveland Circle Auto School Has Driver Education

It was in the year 1936 that Mr. George Bornstein, director of the Cleveland Circle Auto Schools, saw a need for better educated drivers on the roads.

In those days the opportunity of learning to drive from a trained instructor was quite uncommon as it was usually a friend or relative who gave the prospective licensed driver lessons.

To compensate for such conditions the director of the Cleveland Circle Auto Schools started one of the first auto driving schools in New England, designed to give the public a well-planned, safety-minded course of instruction. This came only after long hours of research studying the best conceivable methods of teaching auto driving.

Now, as in those days over 20 years ago, Mr. Bornstein has gone further in his search to educate the drivers on the highways. This time he has gone so far as to offer to young drivers between the ages of sixteen to twenty-five an opportunity of becoming an educated driver through his complete driver education course — a first in Boston.

Mr. Bornstein says: "It is safely assumed whether you have the opportunity to enroll in the Cleveland Circle Schools driver education program, or in our regular courses, you will become a better driver on the highway only because of the constant search for better teaching methods by himself and his trained staff of competent instructors."

Olken's Contest Winners Announced

Winners of the portable TV set and a Raleigh bicycle given away by Olken's, Central Street, Wellesley, on Monday, September 30, were Chester F. English, 9 years old, Breton Road, Dover, the TV set, and 14-year-old Greg MacKenzie, 66 Fuller Brook Road, Wellesley, the Raleigh bike.

A. Edwin Larsson, editor of the Wellesley Townsman, drew the names of the lucky winners. Customers of the Olken's store have been able to turn in tickets on these two gifts all through the month of September.

The gifts were offered in celebration of the opening of Olken's new store at 19 Central Street just two doors away from their former location but nearly twice the size of that store.

Olken's is owned and operated by Henry P. Olken of Newton and carries sporting goods of all kinds for all ages, as well as toys, bicycles, and boys' wear.

Aid for Cancer Research Group Opens 10th Year

The first meeting of "Aid for Cancer Research" for the 1957-1958 season was held recently at the home of Mrs. Maxwell Breau, Newtonville. Plans for the 10th Anniversary Luncheon were put into motion. Mrs. Harry Krivitsky of Chestnut Hill, newly elected president, conducted the meeting.

This unique organization is composed of 26 young women who hope that their efforts toward assisting cancer researchers, by providing financial aid needed for the purchase of vital experimental equipment, will soon prove to be a factor in the solution of the cancer problem.

The extent of the assistance given by this group is measured by the support received by them for their annual luncheon which will be held this year at the Hotel Statler, Boston, on April 21, 1958.

Mayor Whitmore Writes On Growth of Newton

(Ed. note.—This is the first of a series of three articles by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., concerning Newton's growth in recent years.)

A great deal of information has been published during the last several months concerning the growth of cities and towns within the suburban metropolitan area and the shifting of population from the more central core cities to the outlying suburbs.

A review of some of the more important statistics relating to the growth of the City of Newton since 1947 may be of timely interest to our citizens and indicate to them not only the scope of the changes and expansion of physical facilities and services which have necessarily resulted but also the increased valuations, debt and expenditures which have accompanied them.

In 1947 the population of the city was approximately 80,000. In 1957 it is estimated at 89,000—an increase of 9,000 or about 11 percent during the period.

There were 16,270 house or residential units in 1947 and 19,212 in 1956—an increase of 2,942 or about the same percentage increase as in population. The average increase during the nine year period was 372 houses.

The annual increase in both population and new residential units has fluctuated. The rate of growth must necessarily slow down as developable land becomes less available, provided of course the zoning requirements remain the same, particularly as to residential lot sizes and frontages.

As new residences decrease, the total taxable residential valuation of property within the city will increase less rapidly than it has since the war.

The city is and has been zoned so that approximately 95 percent of its area is for residences of one classification or another. There is relatively little potential for industrial growth and valuation under present zoning.

As the city becomes more fully developed, it is difficult to find locations for the many

NVNA Draws Plan For City-Wide Aid If Flu Worsens

The professional nursing staff of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association is prepared to assist Newton residents in the event Asiatic flu becomes prevalent in this city. Miss Katherine MacDonald, executive director of the association, assured board members at the opening fall meeting of the directors of the association this week.

The nursing staff is ready to assist in nursing care at home and willing to help inoculate workers in Newton industry. Services of Visiting Nurses may be obtained by having your doctor call Visiting Nurse Association headquarters, 1990 Washington St., Newton Lower Falls at Bigelow 4-4880.

Plans for the fall program of the Newton-Wellesley Diabetes Education group were announced at the meeting. This group,

Newton Halloween Celebration Now "Is Big Business"

Newton's annual Halloween celebration is now "big business."

The total cost runs into thousands of dollars.

Months of preparation are put into it.

At the present time a force of 1600 devoted men and women committee members are hard at work planning special programs for the 400 parties to be held at 45 locations throughout the city.

Over 16,000 boys and girls, ranging from tiny youngsters in kindergarten to mature seniors in high school, will participate in the festivities.

The 1957 Halloween is again being sponsored by the Newton Recreation Department under the direction of Commissioner C. Evan Johnson. Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester is general chairman, and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, recreation supervisor, is chairman of the program committee.

Health Experts Find No Cause for Alarm

Newton has had no outbreak of Asian Flu as far as can be established.

The city does not have even one case of the disease which is expected to strike with the first real cold weather.

This was reported at a conference held by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., in his office with health, hospital, school, nursing and Red Cross officials.

Those attending the conference were in agreement that there is no cause whatever for undue public alarm over the present situation.

These were the facts which were reported to the Mayor:

While there have been many cases of virus infections in Newton, no proven cases of Asiatic Flu had been reported up to the time of the conference.

Health experts pointed out that sickness at this time of year is not uncommon. They said that while it may be somewhat more prevalent than normally, it is not alarmingly so.

Absences from the Newton public school system because

Asian Flu Check Takes Two Weeks

Even a church safe isn't safe these days.

Newton police have probed safe breaks before. The oldest member can't recall when the victim of the strong box crackers was a church. Then within a 24-hour period, came the reports of two safe jobs at local churches.

From the office of the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre, the robbers took $40 in cash after forcing a desk and a small safe. From the office safe of the First Baptist Church they got $60.

The breaks were made the same night; police believe, by the same safe gang.

Mayor Opposes Cut in B & A Train Service

A strong protest against a petition by the Boston & Albany Railroad to discontinue three trains which stop at the New Tonville station, has been made by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., to the State Public Utilities Commission.

A hearing on the matter will be held at the State House at

Civic Association Endorses 22 For Aldermanic and School Positions

The Newton Civic Association this week named the candidates for the Board of Aldermen and School Committee whom it is sponsoring and supporting in the Nov. 5 municipal election.

The association gave its backing to 18 aspirants for seats on the Aldermanic Board and four contenders for the School Board.

The endorsements were decided upon after a lively session in which the qualifications of the various candidates were threshed out. Hot discussions transpired before the final decisions were reached.

In some instances four different ballots were taken before an agreement was reached as to the candidate to be picked.

The association gave its endorsement to ten of the present members of the Board of Aldermen and to ONE present School Board member.

Spokesmen for the organization explained that they do not endorse candidates who are running unopposed since that would be nothing more than a gesture.

The candidates endorsed by the Civic Association were:

Ward 1. Alderman-at-large—Leo M. Cannon and Carleton Merrill. Ward Alderman

Wards 2, 3, 4. Aldermen-at-large—John P. Nixon and Melvin J. Dangel.

Ward 4. Aldermen-at-large—Earle D. Wood and Harry H. Ham, Jr.

Ward Alderman—Warren A. Sutherland

Prankster Cut Clotheslines

The prankster who cut the clotheslines in the Bound Brook road section is going to be in more trouble if the housewives of the section catch up with him than if police apprehend him. The housewives, particularly those who had clothing drying on the line, are not exactly amused over the stunt. Mrs. Rachel Schwartz of 35 Bound Brook road, reported the incident to the police.

Treasurer Kennedy is Happy To Forego State Convention

One Democratic office-holder, who will not be at all sorry to see his party forego any pre-primary State convention next year will be State Treasurer John F. Kennedy.

Kennedy has won two Democratic primary fights and two elections, but he has been unable to poll more than a slim handful of votes at a party convention.

A dramatic spectacle at the 1956 Democratic convention in Worcester came when Kennedy stood before the delegates, after they had administered a resounding snub to him and had given their endorsement to Clement A. Riley of Norwood.

In a calm, flat tone Kennedy told them he would take his fight to the Democratic voters in the primary and that the result would be different. A volley of boos exploded around him as he walked down from the stage in the big auditorium.

Shunned by his party leaders, spurned by the rank and file of delegates, Kennedy went out and did what he

Rawson Hits Governor's Veto on 'Water Cowboys'

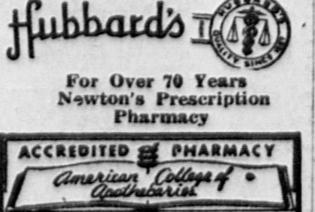

Governor Furcolo's "pocket veto" of a bill designed to curb reckless operation of motor boats on territorial waters of the State. Other boats, wharves, landing stages and fishermen's tackle are damaged or ruined by the ravages of these "cowboys of the water".

"The bill passed the House without opposition," Rawson pointed out. "The Senate passed it after attaching a harmless amendment which I approved."

"The purpose of the bill was to prevent injury to property by reckless operation of motor boats on territorial waters of the State. Other boats, wharves, landing stages and fishermen's tackle are damaged or ruined by the ravages of these 'cowboys of the water'."

Of City Workers From Board

Alderman Leo M. Cannon this week asserted his support of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., in the controversy over the recently adopted measure which would bar persons on the city payroll from serving at the same time on either the Board of Alderman or School.

Cannon, who recently underwent a surgical operation, declared that if he had not been obliged by illness to absent himself, he would have opposed acceptance of the law when it came before the Board of Aldermen and would have voted to sustain the Mayor's veto of the measure.

He announced himself in opposition to the law which would prevent city workers from remaining on the municipal payroll and holding elective office at the same time.

Cannon is standing for reelection as Alderman-at-Large, in Ward 1. One of his opponents is Leonard Putman, an employee in the street department.

Alderman Cannon said that after having served four complete terms and eight years on Present at the conference were the acting health officer, the chairman of the Board of Health and representatives of the school department, the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross, the Newton-Wellesley Hospital and the Newton Visiting Nurse Association.

The Newton health department, it was stated after the meeting, is to be the coordinating agency for all matters involving policy decisions affecting public health.

It will perform its customary duties of gathering information relative to the nature and prevalence of illness and will advise and consult with such other agencies, both public and private, as may be desirable or necessary.

Every effort is being made by both public and private authorities, the Mayor was told, to obtain a full quota of the flu vaccine for those who desire to be inoculated against the disease.

The city is endeavoring to inoculate its employees as quickly as possible so that essential municipal services and functions may be maintained in the event of any emergency, Mayor Whitmore was informed.

Residents of Newton were advised to consult their own physicians concerning both inoculations and sickness.

Although emphasizing that the present situation offers no reason for alarm, the health and hospital experts at the conference expressed the opinion that it was advisable to consider possibilities which might arise and to make tentative plans which could be supplemented and put into effect should the need arise.

Such plans were made, and

Marine Artist To Be Guest At Art Meeting Tonight

The Newton Art Association will hold its third meeting of the season tonight, Thursday, October 17th, at 7:45 p.m., in the Newtonville Library, when Sherwood Blodgett, program director, will present Paul Strisik. He will do one of his outstanding demonstrations of painting a marine picture in oil, while the members watch his technique and study with him color harmony.

Paul Strisik is a nationally known artist who is now a resident of Rockport. His pictures are in New York and Boston galleries and his private gallery is in Rockport.

The Association's first picture showing of the season is now being planned by Mrs. George Palmer, III, Chairman of Exhibitions, which will be held at the Newton Centre Women's Club in November.

Judith is majoring in speech therapy and minoring in history. She expects to receive her degree in June of 1960.

Growth.

Newton always has been a city of home and there is a strong sentiment not to change its character. The average cost per person is higher in such a city and the question is constantly asked how long can we afford the increased costs which appear to be continuing upward.

The total taxable valuation of all land and buildings in 1947 was $156,791,550. This year the valuation is $246,564,700. During the ten year period, the increase has amounted to $89,773,150 or about 57%. The average annual increase has been about $9,000,000. The increase in 1957 over 1956 was $6,972,150 of which $5,114,650 was taxable new buildings and alterations.

The largest increases in real estate valuations during the period occurred in the years 1949, 1951, 1952 and in 1956. For these four years the average increase was over the preceding year was approximately $11,400,000.

In 1948, there were 33,015 automobile excise tax bills rendered whereas eight years later in 1956, there were 43,488—an increase of 10,473 or 31.5%. As transfers of vehicles are included in these figures they cannot be considered to portray the exact number of cars owned at one time by the residents of the city, but they give a fairly accurate picture of the growth of automobile ownership.

It is estimated that there are currently 40,000 cars in the city. There are about 45 percent as many cars as there are people or slightly less than one to every two people. The resultant growth of the traffic problem is apparent as is that of parking and traffic safety.

These are just a few of the indices illustrating the changes that have occurred within our city since the war. The consequential effects are complex and far-reaching. In many respects they are similar to our neighboring suburbs.

Yet each community has characteristics of its own. They must be carefully and continuously analyzed to determine not only our present situation but also to provide us with facts and trends which will guide us for the future. It is for these reasons that Newton is placing great importance and emphasis on planning both current and long range.

We'll Be Told What's What

Newton is in the position of a man whose neighbors don't like the way the old apple tree in his backyard is growing. Accordingly, they move in with their saws and de-limbing apparatus and take over the self-appointed job of trimming the tree to their own taste and ideas.

They don't even let the owner of the tree offer his own advice. It's his yard. It's his tree. The neighbors want it fixed up according to their own ideas. They'll not permit any kibitzing.

When the neighbors pick up their tree and go their way, the man is left to live in his own yard with his own tree—the way they want it.

Chairman David M. Brackman of the State Public Utilities is probably within his rights under the law to announce there would be no public hearing on the installation of the extensive MTA facilities at Riverside when and if the transit authority takes over the Highland Branch.

It is entirely possible, too, if a hearing was granted to residents and taxpayers of Newton who will be most affected by the expensive installation, that the Public Utilities Commission and the MTA would turn a deaf ear to any suggestions or pleas.

For $344,170—the estimate for the new parking and terminal facilities at Riverside—quite a bit of face-lifting can be done to that section of Newton. It can be nice face-lifting or it can be disfiguring. It can present a lot of problems for Newton police and fire departments to solve, or it can ease problems which already exist.

Undoubtedly, the engineers who will tackle the job are competent. They'll be working for the interests of the MTA, however. That's because of the very nature of their assignment.

When the interests of the MTA and the interests of Newton conflict, they may well be expected to resolve the differences in favor of the MTA.

Some strange things have happened since the Boston & Albany decided to rid itself of the Highland branch. Not the least strange is the apparent decision of Chairman Brackman to hold no public hearings.

In effect he's telling Newton—"No lip from you—it's your land but we intend to do it our way."

Somehow, that seems to be something less than fair.

Worthwhile Cause

The 1957 annual Harvest Campaign of the Catholic Guild for the Blind which opened on Labor Day is seeking funds to carry on a most needed and deserving work.

The Guild is not a member of any fund. It depends wholly on the Annual Harvest to support a broad program of services to thousands of blind persons.

No harvest money, nor any money which the Guild solicits from the public-at-large, is ever used for the Guild's religious services.

Harvest gifts make possible operation of St. Paul's Rehabilitation Center, Newton, only such facility for newly-blinded adults in New England and one of the few in the country. Small resident classes receive intensive training to regain skills in travel, eating, cooking, using tools, and the telephone—all but a part of the total rehabilitation program.

The methods instituted at St. Paul's by the Rev. Thomas J. Carroll, guild director, have attracted national attention. Father Carroll has assembled a team of experts who seek to prepare the blind for a useful, non-segregated existence. Teachers, social workers, doctors and psychiatrists assist in a total rehabilitation program physical, emotional and vocational. St. Paul's is open to blind applicants in the New England area.

Gifts can be made to the Catholic Guild for the Blind headquarters at 65 Franklin street, Boston 10.

Political Overtones

said he would do. He won—on the strength of his own name.

Whether he would be endorsed next year if a convention were held is uncertain. Possibly the delegates would recognize the futility of pitting anyone against him. But Kennedy wouldn't gamble much on that happening.

Reports and rumors as to what Kennedy may do next year have been circulating through the State House for some weeks. One story which has attracted widespread attention was that Kennedy might oppose Governor Foster Furcolo for the gubernatorial nomination in the primary next September.

That posed the interesting, though somewhat unlikely, possibility that the Democratic State ticket might be headed by two John F. Kennedys next year, one running for U. S. Senator and other for Governor.

The flaw in that conjecture is that there is no basis whatever for the report that Treasurer Kennedy may strike out and bid for the Governorship in 1958.

Kennedy declares that he definitely will be a candidate for reelection to a third term next year and that he isn't even thinking of any other office as far as 1958 is concerned.

Without saying so directly, however, he implies that the Democratic party will have to reckon with him as a candidate for Governor in 1960.

That is understandable because under the Massachusetts Constitution a State Treasurer is limited to three terms, and Kennedy is now serving his second term in office.

When 1960 comes, Kennedy will either have to retire from politics or strike out for some new office, assuming, of course, that he wins reelection a year hence.

Treasurer Kennedy asserts, incidentally, that he is definitely and vigorously opposed to holding any pre-primary convention next year, irrespective of what attitude the delegates might have toward him.

Newton Teacher Steals Show at Forum Session

Millard Harmon, science and mathematics teacher at Weeks Junior High School, Newton, was recently called upon to preside at a forum session of educators at Sharon, Pa. Previous to the meeting he contacted scientist friends and asked them about the atom age ahead.

The answers he got—relayed to 142 educators attending the meeting—stole the show.

"It is no longer a dream," L. M. Stark of Westinghouse Electric Corp., told Mr. Harmon, "to suppose that all major vessels built after 1960 will be nuclear-powered." Stark added that necessity may have forced Britain ahead of the U. S. temporarily in the race for atomic kilowatt hours, but he felt that "most experts agree that the S. S. is leading the race in technology."

Senator Saltonstall told Harmon, "The government should take a principal role in the research and development of atomic energy for defense purposes as it is doing now."

Community Club's Scholarship Party

The Newton Community Club will hold its annual Scholarship Bridge Party today (Thursday) at Hunnewell House. Dessert to be served at 1 p.m. will precede the bridge. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will go to the fund used each year to help a Newton High School girl go to college.

Mrs. J. William Quigley is chairman of arrangements for the affair. She will be assisted by Mrs. Carlton L. Snow, Mrs. Herbert B. Dwight, Mrs. Morgan S. Campbell, Mrs. Allen I. Hatfield, and Mrs. Norman S. Atkinson. Mr. Ronald Jones will be in charge of the Opportunity Table.

Jackson Homestead To Hold Open House

Doors of the Jackson Homestead at 527 Washington st. in Newton will be opened from 3 to 5 p.m. next Sunday, Oct. 20, to celebrate the first Open House of the autumn season.

Everything is in readiness. Floors have been freshly scraped and waxed, new curtains hung. Hostesses are busy learning the history of the various rooms. Charming old costumes for the Girl Scout helpers have been pressed and the exhibit committee has put the finishing touches on the "Two Centuries of Children's Toys and Possessions" display.

Hostesses for the afternoon, on Mrs. F. Leslie Ford's committee, will be Miss Florence C. Bacon, Mrs. Willard C. Dodge, Mrs. Nathan D. Bugbee, Mrs. Ralph E. Keyes, Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland, and Mrs. Ralph D. Weston.

That "New Look" in the windows will be the result of many hours of painstaking work on the part of Mrs. E. Graham Bates' corps of workers. Sheer, batiste curtains, trimmed with lace-like tatting, have been hand sewn by Miss Florence C. Bacon, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Nathan D. Bugbee, Mrs. Morgan S. Campbell, Mrs. Kenneth Collinson, Mrs. C. Burton Cotting, Miss Lorraine Cotting, Mrs. F. Leslie Ford, Mrs. George S. Fuller, Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy, Mrs. Irving B. Kelley, Mrs. Alexander J. Peckham, Mrs. John A. Shaw, and Mrs. Howard C. Thomas. Each of the 17 large windows had its own special "seamstress" and the results are perfectly lovely.

Children are so much a part of the Homestead that it was decided to center the first exhibit around them. There will be many fascinating toys and possessions from the collections of Mrs. George M. Wile, of West Newton, the Jackson Homestead, and others.

Deaths

Maurice Rubin

Maurice Rubin, an authority and dealer in antiques for more than 25 years, died at his home at 80 Doordar road last Sunday. He was 58.

Members of the Ford and DuPont families were among collectors who used his services in adding to their collections. He was for many years proprietor of the Colonial Antique Shop in Boston and from 1919 to 1932 operated in partnership with his brother Philip of Newton. Born in London, he came to the U. S. as a boy.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Levine Funeral Chapel.

"I don't think they should have had any convention in the first place," he adds.

Kennedy didn't bother submitting his name to the 1954 convention. For that matter he didn't attend the convention. He was out getting signatures on his nomination papers.

He explains that the only reason he allowed his name to be placed in nomination at the 1956 conclave was that he felt he should because he was holding public office. He indicates that he had no illusions as to what his fate at the convention would be.

As far as Kennedy is concerned, the Democrats can give the pre-primary convention back to the Republicans. Governor Furcolo is in agreement with him in that opinion.

Women's ORT Open Meeting Wednesday

The Newton Evening Chapter of Women's American ORT will hold an open meeting on Wednesday, October 23, at 8:15 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center on Sutherland road in Brighton. Mrs. Israel Selkowitz, executive vice president, will preside.

The highlight of the evening will be a showing of the new film produced by the American Cancer Society on cancer and its control. Following the film, Dr. Lewis Pilcher, member of the American Board of Surgeons, will speak and answer questions. Dr. Pilcher is affiliated with the Waltham, New England Baptist and Mt. Auburn hospitals, and he is well known as an authority on surgery as it relates to cancer. Because of the importance and timeliness of the program, any interested people are most cordially invited to attend.

The answers he got—relayed to 142 educators attending the meeting—stole the show.

"It is no longer a dream," L. M. Stark of Westinghouse Electric Corp., told Mr. Harmon, "to suppose that all major vessels built after 1960 will be nuclear-powered." ## Awarded $2555 March Of Dimes Scholarship

Roberta Florence Cooper of 37 Burr road, Newton, has been awarded a March of Dimes scholarship of $2,555 in physical therapy by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, it was announced this week by John Whyte, chairman of the Middlesex County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The one-year scholarship is to enable Miss Cooper to complete her education in physical therapy at an approved school. She is studying at Bouve-Boston School of Tufts University, Medford, Mass. The award was made upon recommendation of a national committee of physical therapy leaders.

There will be a consecration service for 60 beginning students of the Temple's Hebrew school, Saturday, October 26. The service will take place in the main temple.

The Hebrew School meets three times a week for a two-hour session at which time the students study Hebrew, the Bible, customs and ceremonies, literature, history and music. The six year course is for both boys and girls.

The 15-room wing of the Hebrew and Sunday schools was the first completed section of the new $1,500,000 temple. The entire temple is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Why Insure Children?

An inexpensive policy on a child may protect a family from going into debt to meet doctor's bills and funeral expenses. If the child lives—the low premiums are a help when he grows up and starts paying them himself. But remember this—the best educational plan for any child—the best guarantee that he won't have to start work before he finishes school—is adequate protection on the life of the parent responsible for the support of the family and for the payment of premiums! By buying life insurance direct from your savings bank, you help cut selling costs . . . and you get the savings. Ask for rates, age 1 month to 70 years, amounts from $500 up.

WILLIAM R. GREVE
50 Years With Firm; Feted At Dinner Tuesday

William R. Greve, manager of the American Sugar Refining Company's Boston accounting office since 1923, was honored at a dinner Tuesday night in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel marking his fiftieth anniversary with the company.

A gold watch symbolizing Mr. Greve's 50 years with American Sugar was presented by G. Vincent Pach, company vice president. Mr. Pach also read a congratulatory message from William F. Oliver, company president.

Other company officials attending included George F. Lamb, Jr., treasurer; George J. Blatz, comptroller, and the managers of the company's other accounting offices at Baltimore, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New Orleans.

Mr. Greve joined American Sugar on October 15, 1907 as a junior clerk in the New Orleans sales office. He transferred to the accounting office there in 1912 and was cost division supervisor when he was named chief accountant at the new Baltimore office in 1922. A year later he was promoted to his present position.

Mr. Greve, his wife, and their daughter, Dorothy make their home in Newton Highlands, Massachusetts.

Last Saturday, the Dickson Stadium boys went down to Brockton. They took the Shoe City Boys into camp by the thin margin of 6-0. A Brockton boot near the end of the first period laid the foundation for their sole score of the game.

If it hadn't been for that error the ball game could have ended in a 0-0 stand-off. Accordingly, as Newton prepared itself for another road game this weekend it was carrying an unbeaten slate for 1957—three wins, no losses. Going back into 1956, the win streak mounts to five in a row. Besides that Newton has gone unbeaten in its last seven games.

Last Saturday Brockton was laying for Newton. Its 6-2 loss to the Tigers a year ago still ranked. The Shoe City fielded a veteran backfield; a strong, stalwart line.

The effective action in the game came near the end of the first period. Things were going along in hum-drum fashion and it appeared that only a break would decide the issue.

Then the break came—as breaks do—without warning.

Brockton fumbled on its 29-yard line. That was all that was necessary. Guard Dave Connor, who's getting pretty expert about such things, recovered for Newton.

Jim Yanci moved it from the Brockton 29 to the 20. Charlie Vento wound up his pitching arm and found Vern Rollins for a first down on the 9. Yanci drove to the 1 and then a bit of stubbornness on the part of the good Brockton line made things a little difficult.

It was fourth down a couple of feet to go. It looked as though the Brockton line was going to hang on all afternoon.

It didn't. Charlie Vento called his own signal, dove over for the score. The point-after try came to naught.

Brockton really threw only one big scare into the Tigers after that. Gene Norow got away on a long 50-yard jaunt for Brockton and wasn't downed until he landed on the five-yard mark.

But before he could get to his feet he looked down field. It was covered with officials' flags. The teams were called back and Brockton was plastered with a 15-yard clipping penalty. The result was routine.

Fire Chief Blames Smokers For 200,000 Fires Annually

Match heads and cigarettes have no brains—and the same can be said of 200,000 American smokers who persist in setting their homes and the forests afire every year.

That's the way Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., of Newton sizes it up after studying the statistics.

The sad part of it, the chief says, is that we almost always make the mistake of placing the blame for these fires on the match and cigaret rather than on the selfish, unthinking person who used them.

For thinking persons who would be smart and safe smokers, Chief Perkins recommends being ever mindful of these simple rules:

"1. If you smoke in bed, break this deadly habit at once. It is one of the most common and most correctable causes of fire deaths."

"2. Make certain your matches and cigarettes are completely out before disposing of them; break the match between your fingers and grind the cigaret until the lighted end is cool to the touch."

"3. Have plenty of safe ash trays around your house and office; such an ash tray should be non-combustible, non-spillable, non-tippable and large—but not so large as to substitute for the waste basket."

"4. When driving, discard your matches and cigarettes in the car's ash tray; see to it that other passengers do so, too."

"5. After parties and every night before retiring, look beneath sofa cushions and around stuffed chairs for cigarettes that may have fallen unnoticed into such highly combustible hiding places."

Families Demand Budget Protection Plan

READ THESE IMPORTANT REASONS WHY HUNDREDS OF FAMILIES CHANGE OVER . . .

On what basis do YOU choose your fuel oil supplier—money saved, finest service or cleanest-burning fuel? Miller Oil gives you all these advantages. PLUS two great new advantages—all for not a penny more! Read them and learn why it will pay you many times over to change to Miller Oil at once!

1. Best fuel saves you money: Miller delivers Gulf Solar Heat fuel—certified premium grade fuel that gives more heat in every gallon, also burns cleaner to help keep your home spotless and lengthen the life of your heating system!

2. Easiest way to pay:

Miller divides your total estimated fuel bill for a normal heating season into ten equal payments, the first due in October and the last in July. Thus, you avoid paying large fuel bills during the coldest winter months when other bills (like for Christmas shopping) are heavy. If your payments are larger than your actual fuel costs, we refund the balance due you. If your costs are larger than your payments, you will be billed for the difference at the end of the season. And, for the first time, you may include payments for burner service in your Budget Protection Plan.

3. You get deliveries without phoning:

Under the Plan, you don't worry about running out of oil on a cold night, no need to phone for your supply. Miller automatically computes your needs based on the weather and your usual consumption. When Miller's records show you need oil, Miller delivers it—automatically.

4. You get ultra-modern service:

Miller's large staff of factory-trained servicemen assures you of non-stop comfort 'round-the-clock.

5. You get free fuel oil

In event of death, as well as peace of mind from knowing your family's heating needs will be well taken care of all winter long without any financial obligation.

New Fuel Oil Discovery Slashes Your Heating Costs, Helps Keep Your Home Clean

Ultra—wonderful! That's new Gulf Solar Heat... because it gives you more heat per gallon... slashes your heating costs! And because it lets your burner operate at peak efficiency—all the time!

Purified with hydrogen. Many fuels need so-called "wonder" additives to help make up for their inferior quality. New Gulf Solar Heat is refined so clean that it needs no additives of any kind.

UNION MUTUAL LIFE GUARANTEES PLAN

Miller Oil Company's fully insured Budget Protection Plan is underwritten and guaranteed by Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of Portland, Maine, one of the largest and strongest companies in New England.

NO AGE LIMITS — NO EXAMINATION

You get the full benefit of Miller's amazing Budget Protection Plan, without regard to age. Even if you are over 65, you can qualify. There is no medical examination—your statement that you are in good health is good enough.

EASY WAY TO GET PEACE OF MIND

The man who does everything can make sure his family's needs are taken care of regardless of what the future may bring will not delay a moment in arranging for his own fully insured Budget Protection Plan. Regardless of whether or not your family ever has to use the life insurance protection you arrange for in your fuel contract, you have peace of mind knowing that your family's heating needs are safeguarded.

NO NEED TO GAMBLE ANY MORE

Miller Oil's new Plan does away with old-fashioned fuel buying that places the burden of paying for fuel entirely on the surviving family in case of death. Since you get this protection without paying a single extra, there is absolutely no need to gamble with your family's future obligations, so far as heating your home is concerned.

WHY DEPRIVE YOURSELF AND FAMILY OF THIS PROTECTION . . .

when it cost you absolutely nothing—not one cent—to get your fuel oil free in event of death. And you get Gulf Solar Heat fuel oil—a premium grade oil that's worth pennies a gallon more, but costs no more than ordinary fuel!

Sparkling New Market Is 'Fulfillment of Dream'

Bill Sklar, active in the retail food business all his life, is a "most happy fella."

His sparkling, new Sklar's Market in Newton Corner had its opening yesterday.

"It's the fulfillment of a dream," Bill said, "a dream that took years of hard work—and loyal customers and employees—to develop."

Bill has owned his own business since 1945. Before that he was associated with a well-known supermarket chain for many years.

Besides the new Sklar's, formerly the Newton Super Market, he is proprietor of Beacon Super-market on Beacon Street Brookline.

"We've added 11,000 square feet to our original 9,000 feet for a total of 20,000 square feet of display and selling space," explains Bill.

"Nothing is too good for our customers. That's why we spared no expense to establish the most attractive, most convenient supermarket possible."

Bill's $250,000 investment in one of greater Boston's outstanding supermarkets is also an indication of the faith he has in the future of Newton.

He and Mrs. Sklar and their two sons, Richard, Jr., 22, and Paul, 18, have lived in Newton for 15 years. Their home is at 60 Allerton Rd.

Richard, vice-president of the firm, is now serving at an Army post in Texas.

Bill is proud of the thousands of regular customers who patronize his market.

A key to the satisfied-customer relationship is his insistence on the "personal touch."

Bill himself leaves his attractive second-floor office and tours the supermarket selling area time and time again—daily. He personally assists many customers to make a choice of merchandise—and insists that his well-trained employees be alert for the customer's welfare.

Sklar's in Newton Corner is going to offer supermarket shoppers the best in service, merchandise and attractive surroundings.

That's a promise from Bill Sklar.

Mayor Whitmore Writes On Automobile Insurance

(Ed. note—This is the second of a series of three articles written for Graphic readers by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr.)

In this second of a series of three articles concerning the growth of the City in the last few years, I am diverting somewhat from discussing purely the growth aspects to one which is the result of growth and which is most important to Newton car owners, - namely, compulsory automobile rates.

There are many complex factors involved in determining such rates but the basic ones are the number of automobiles insured, the number of accidents from which claims for bodily injury arise and the cost of settling resultant claims.

Recently, the insurance commissioner of the Commonwealth listed the tentative rates for Newton and all other cities and towns in the State for 1958. Those listed for Newton for Class 1 showed an increase from $36.50 to $49.50; for Class 2 from $56.50 to $76.50; and for Class 2A and 3 from $46.50 to $63.

In other words, the smallest increase proposed was $13 for all passenger cars garaged in Newton, where there are no licensed drivers in the family under twenty-five years of age and the cars are not to be driven for business purposes. The rates are for the required coverage of $5,000, for bodily injuries to one person in an accident and $10,000 for total bodily injuries to people in any one accident. The increase of $13 is 35.5 percent.

What are the experience of the insurance companies in statistics on which such an increase is based? What are they for Newton over the last five years?

Some definitions are necessary before we can understand the statistics. They are:

1. Earned Car Years—The number of private passenger cars garaged in Newton adjusted to a full twelve months basis—i.e., two cars registered as of July 1 would equal one car year of exposure.

2. The Compulsory Premium—The annual premium collected for compulsory insurance.

3. Losses Incurred—The amount of money paid out by

3 Families Flee Early Morning Fire

Three families numbering 13 adults and children were forced to flee from their homes when flames swept through a house at 161 Summer street in Newton Centre early Tuesday morning.

Damage was estimated at $10,000 after firefighters finally brought the blaze under control and extinguished it.

Nine fire companies responded to battle the conflagration, and apparatus was sent from Wellesley, Watertown and Waltham to cover the Newton stations.

Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., declared that the blaze apparently started when sparks from the furnace ignited a pile of firewood.

He said the indications were that the flames spread through hot air ducts into the partitions and then up to the attic and through the roof of the 2½-story dwelling.

Only Few Days To Get Auto Sticker

A reminder to local motorists that they have only a few days in which to obtain the safety stickers which must appear on the windshields of their automobiles on Friday of next week, was issued today by Registrar of Motor Vehicles Rudolph F. King.

Registrar King urged those car-owners who haven't yet secured their stickers to get them as quickly as possible in order to avoid the delays certain to occur in the 11th hour rush.

Pattern Here Erratic For Flu Outbreaks

The flu hit in spotty fashion at a number of Newton public schools this week.

Absenteeism throughout the city's school system was reported as about three times as great as is normally the case.

Yet, it did not follow any regular pattern. Absenteeism was high in some parts of the city and low in others.

Dr. Henry W. Godfrey, acting director of public health, declared that there still has not yet been proven case of Asian flu in Newton.

But he added that some form of virus or flu has been hitting parts of the city.

Hardest hit was the Weeks Junior High School in Newton Centre where nearly 22 per cent of the pupils were absent

Mothers Claim Toll Road Adds Traffic Dangers

West Newton mothers declare that traffic hazards have imperilled the lives of children attending the Davis School to a greater extent than ever since the opening of the new East-West toll road.

The mothers claim that the attending jump in the traffic volume has been far greater than had been expected. A group of them petitioned the Board of Aldermen to fix a 20-mile-an-hour speed limit on Watertown street in order to reduce the hazards.

The group is led by Mrs. Joseph McNamara of 860 Watertown street and Mrs. Robert Wolenden of 854 Watertown street.

Newton-Wellesley Hospital Expansion Ready, Oct. '58

Contracts totalling approximately $700,000 have been signed by the Newton-Wellesley Hospital and J. Slotnik Co., of Boston for completion of the fifth and sixth floors at the hospital and for modernization and revision of accident ward facilities.

When the new construction is completed, in about 11 months, the Newton-Wellesley will become a 300-bed hospital, among the top 10 in bed capacity in the Greater Boston area.

Said a hospital spokesman: "Since the time of the last

Plans Virtually Completed For Halloween Celebration

Preparations for Newton's 17th all-community Halloween celebration are in the "home-stretch" stage.

Programs for 450 different parties a week from today in which more than 16,000 school children will participate are virtually completed.

The 1600 committee members planning the gala affairs have only last-minute details still to iron out.

The cost of this vast cooperative undertaking is surprisingly moderate.

Expenses are met partly with funds from the Recreation Department, partly by token fees paid by the children, and the balance from contributions by civic-minded merchants and citizens.

The committee members declared that it is the wholehearted backing from the city government, the school department, the Chamber of Commerce and the civic organizations which make possible the outstanding success of Newton's Halloween festivities.

Following are the most recent progress reports received by Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, chairman of the program committee.

Approximately 600 children in kindergarten and the first six grades will attend the Franklin School parties according to Mrs. Marion E. Moriarty, building

Vandals Damage Play Equipment

Vandals damaged the jungle gym in the playground at the Murray School on Murray road. Henry Baley, custodian of the school, reported to police that about eight metal bars were taken from the gym which is used by children and that another half dozen bars were thrown around the school yard. Baley disclosed that there also has been other damage recently to the school.

Newton High Group Among Top 38 Selected in Nation

Newton High School was cited this week in Newsweek and Time magazines as one of 38 top ranking high schools in the United States.

NHS's new principal, Harold Howe II, was formerly principal of another of the schools on the list, Walnut Hills High School in Cincinnati, and taught at a third, Phillips Academy in Andover.

"We are naturally delighted to be included in this distinguished group," said Howe, "but I feel that the basis of selection was a limited one and automatically excludes some very fine secondary schools that are small."

The articles describe the efforts of a Chicago School board president to compile a list of the country's outstanding secondary schools to serve as models for a new school in his community.

Aldermanic and School Board Candidates in Closing Drives

Newton's political campaign is now nearing a peak as a small army of candidates for the Board of Aldermen and School Committee aim for a week from Tuesday when the voters go to the polls in the biennial municipal election.

Mounting public interest in the outcome of the election battles is indicated in most sections of the city, even though Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., for the second successive time is unopposed for the highest office within the gift of the people of Newton.

One of the reasons for the attention centered on the Aldermanic and School Boards is that the creation of an additional ward in the city has created openings for which political newcomers are bidding vigorously.

Also on the ballot for the approval or rejection of the voters will be a proposal that the salary of the Mayor of Newton be raised from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

Because of the caliber of the administration Mayor Whitmore has given and the fact that by the standards of private industry his pay is extremely low, it is anticipated that the suggested mayoralty wage hike will be endorsed by the voters.

The fact that the Aldermen over the Mayor's veto accepted a legislative act providing that city employees must quit their municipal jobs in order to serve on the Aldermanic Board has added fuel to the political fight in some wards.

One municipal worker has indicated that he will take the matter into court if he is successful in his quest for a position on the Board of Aldermen.

Torch-Lighters Needed For United Fund Here

899 New Voters Added to City's Election Lists

There will be at least 47,275 registered voters eligible to cast ballots in the municipal election this month. This campaign, created by givers, brings together into one giant appeal 377 social health and welfare agencies serving people in Newton and 48 surrounding communities.

At least 50,000 volunteers will be needed to make this first big United effort a success. Volunteers are needed in all communities to serve as solicitors.

For volunteer workers, the United Fund saves time and energy, concentration is on one big annual effort instead of a constant series of separate campaigns.

It provides an opportunity for men and women from all walks of life to work together for the

Arsenault Granted New 10-Day Stay to Perfect Appeal

The case of Henry P. Arsenault, 30, facing death in the electric chair for his part in the slaying of Merrill Lovinger in Newton, remained in the Federal Courts this week and he was assured of life until Oct. 31, at least.

Judge William T. McCarthy in Federal District Court, Boston, granted counsel for Arsenault a new 10-day stay in order that his lawyer, John F. Kelley might perfect his pending appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The appeal will be from Judge McCarthy's decision denying a writ of habeas corpus to Arsenault against Warden James A. Gavin of the State prison at Walpole. On Oct. 17, Judge McCarthy ruled that Arsenault had not exhausted his remedies in the State courts.

In granting the newest 10-day stay, Judge McCarthy stated that any further stay would have to be granted by the U.S. Court of Appeals, comprising Judges Calvert Magruder, Peter Woodbury and John P. Hartigan.

Pure Premium—Is the average loss cost per car year of exposure. It is obtained by dividing the total dollars of Losses Incurred in a policy year by the total number of Earned Car Years.

Loss Ratio—Is the ratio of total dollar Losses Incurred to the total dollars collected for compulsory insurance premiums.

In the transmittal letter, relative to the chart published with today's article, the following observations were included:

"You will note that the 5 year, 1952-1956, loss ratio is 74 percent; the 2 year, 1955-1956, 82 percent; and the latest year, 1956, 90 percent. The rates contemplate a loss ratio of 67.5 percent, leaving 32.5 percent for expenses. In the latest year then, the companies have expended (.90 + 32.5 = 1.225) one dollar and twenty-two cents for every dollar of premium collected in Newton. Similarly, the balance of four hundred and forty-two accidents in Newton in 1956 resulted in claims being paid for owners whose cars were garaged in other cities and towns in the greater Boston area.

Claims against Newton garaged vehicles were settled for 2293 accidents in the Commonwealth in 1956. Of these 1972 occurred in the Greater Boston area—321 outside the for increased rates.

The average claim cost is stated as being $500 which means that these accidents resulted in payments of $35,500 by insurance companies for Newton policy holders.

Family Service Bureau of Newton bids farewell this fall to its executive director of the past ten years, Mrs. Catherine Holden, who is spending a year working under the direction of Smith College School of Social work. Her current assignment at the James Jackson Putnam Children's Center in Roxbury will give her a new approach to family problems.

The bureau welcomes as its new executive director Miss Elizabeth S. Parker who comes to Newton from the Lowell Family Service, where she has been executive director for the past ten years. Miss Parker is a native of Maine, graduate of Cony High School in Augusta, and the Episcopal Church Training School in Philadelphia. She has also done graduate work at Temple University in Philadelphia, and at the Boston University School of Social Work. For four years she was connected with the Maine Department of Public Welfare, where she was both training and district supervisor.

Miss Parker's recent ten years in Lowell Family Service as executive director brought a number of distinctions to that area. Under her leadership the Golden Age Club and Mental Health Ass'n developed into flourishing organizations. Lowell Family Service was honored Family Service was honored during that same period by the Family Service Association of America as the outstanding member agency in the country in interpreting the service of a family agency to the community.

Newton is not unfamiliar to Miss Parker, who did some of her student training here while she was at the Boston University School of Social Work. She has served on the program planning committee for the Massachusetts Conference of Social Work, and is a member of the regional committee of the Family Service Association of America, as well as a charter member of the National Association of Social Workers.

Tells of Objection To Sun. Bowling

Sunday bowling in Newton would be another breakdown of the observance of the Sabbath, the Rev. Charles N. Pickell of the United Presbyterian Church in Newton Corner declared today that the enrollment of captains by the various village chairmen has almost been completed.

Mr. Pickell recently appeared before the Board of Aldermen in opposition to a petition to legalize Sunday bowling. He submitted a statement of objection signed by 59 of his parishioners who live in Newton and also recorded the opposition of the official board of his church.

"We feel there is a direct relationship between the breakdown of the Christian observance of the Sabbath and the increase in immorality and crime in the nation," the clergyman asserted, adding that it would be "one more thing which would take away from the fact that Sunday is essentially a day of worship and meditation."

Election.

The next 12 days will be extremely busy ones for most of the Aldermanic and School Committee candidates. While no old-fashioned political rallies are scheduled, a large number of house parties and or organizations meetings are planned.

Supporters of some of the candidates are making telephone canvasses in an effort to promote support for their favorites, and in some instances workers are going from door to door to ask for votes for the candidates they are backing.

Ward 6 is the one district of the city where there is little or no political activity and an air of unbroken calm and quiet exists. There will be no election-day competition in that sector.

Alderman-at-large Charles F. Hovey and William F. Ripley, Ward Alderman Hirsh Sharf and School Committeeman Haskell C. Freeman all are unopposed and assured of reelection in Ward 6.

Also unopposed are Ward Alderman Stuart M. Spaulding and School Committeewoman Genevieve R. Oncley in Ward 2, Ward Alderman Charles H. Cosgrove and School Committeewoman Grace C. Whitmore in Ward 3, School Committeeman Manuel Beckwith in Ward 4, Alderman William H. Prentice in Ward 5 and School Committeeman John P. Cochrane in Ward 7.

The other Aldermen and School Committee members all are being challenged by candidates seeking their seats.

The biggest field and most activity are in the newly created Ward 8 section, where three candidates are battling for two positions as Aldermen-at-large, five are contesting for one post of ward alderman, and four for the ward's one place on the School Board.

The target date for those embattled candidates and for the contenders in the other wards is a week from Tuesday — November 5.

Now It's Magazines

Complaints that persistent magazine salesmen are making their appearances at this season in residential sections hereabouts, would seem to indicate that the door-to-door fraternity of the spring turn from grass seeds and garden equipment to reading matter when the Fall comes around.

Many of these solicitors have been known to misrepresent both themselves and the publishing houses they claim to represent.

In some instances they have declared themselves to be representing religious or charitable organizations.

Householders should know that it is easy to establish the phones from the legitimate door-to-door salesmen. If they entertain any doubt the best procedure is to halt the negotiation—close the door and forget about it.

United Fund Boosters

The period of the first United Fund drive will be one of great decision in the metropolitan area.

The decision will be made by the average man on the street, the housewife in the home, the garage mechanic, the man who drives the bus and the white collar worker who sells you your necktie or your ticket to the ball game.

It will be made by you and by me—by all of us.

The decision we make may not do much to change our own lives other than the satisfaction which comes from knowing we have extended a helping hand to those in less fortunate circumstances.

But it will mean all the difference that's possible in the lives of children who never will be able to drive trucks or appear as lawyers in courtrooms.

It will make a great difference, too, in the lives of men and women whose world is confined within four walls and whose whole area of mobility is limited to the beds on which they lie.

It will make a tremendous difference to all those who are looking to us for help.

It will mean a vast difference to all those looking to us for help.

This newspaper shares in the realization that there is a great need for a vehicle such as the United Fund to provide that help.

It shares that opinion with those fine merchants who are backing the United Fund to the limit as that urge that you participate in this wonderful undertaking.

It shares that opinion with the many men and women who are taking time out of their own busy days to serve as volunteer workers and help to put this drive over the top.

They all recognize the tremendous good the United Fund can accomplish. They are asking that you help to make it possible for it to carry out its work of mercy.

Political Overtones

The blunt truth of the matter is that except for one period of a little more than a year in the last 10 years the Democratic State Committee has not amounted to much of anything.

It was by-passed on important party decisions. It took no part as an organization in State political campaigns. It met only infrequently. It rarely did anything, and when it did take any action, nobody paid much, if any, attention to it.

That was the situation when Burke decided to strike out for the Democratic State chairmanship in 1955. After a battle of nearly a year, he achieved the chairmanship early in 1956. For a brief period he pumped new life in it, and for a short time it commanded public attention.

Then a group of Adlai Stevenson admirers banded together and opposed Burke because he had supported Congressman John W. McCormack as the favorite son Presidential candidate from Massachusetts. After a two-fisted, knock-down brawl, Burke was defeated for reelection to the chairmanship, and ex-Mayor John M. (Pat) Lynch of Somerville was installed in his place.

Extravagant promises and predictions were made at the time of the Burke-Lynch fight of the rebirth in prestige the Democratic State Committee was to know and that it would achieve a place equal or superior to that of the Republican State Committee.

The fact of the matter is that after Lynch's election the Democratic State Committee gradually slipped back into the same oblivion it had known before the Burke fight began. It has met rarely and has done little.

In the political campaigns a year ago, the Republican State Committee headquarters was the center of practically all GOP activity. It functioned as an official State political organization would be expected to operate.

Governor Furcolo and the other Democratic office-seekers ran their own campaigns and waged their own fights entirely apart from and independent of the Democratic State Committee, paying little or no attention to it.

That is merely a factual report of what happened. It is not intended as any criticism of State Committee Chairman Lynch who demonstrated before he became head of the Democratic organization that he is a competent politician and a good organizer.

The responsibility actually rests with other people than Lynch. For all practical purpose he is hamstrung. He can do little without the cooperation of top Democratic leaders. He is dependent upon them even for the funds to meet the basic office expenses of the Democratic State Committee.

When the Republicans stage a big fund-raising dinner, as they did earlier this year, the money goes into the treasury of the GOP State Committee.

When the Democrats hold their Jefferson-Jackson

Poll Pinpoints Qualities Desired by Newton Voters

By PHYLLIS NEWTON

Contrary to popular opinion, it may not be necessary that you be born and bred here—that you be president of the PTA—or that you work long years on charitable drives in order to win election to local office here in Newton.

More important, according to a survey recently completed by the Newton Civic Association, are those hard-to-measure qualities of sincerity, intelligence and integrity, and an ability to give the necessary time to the job.

The non-partisan civic group conducted this poll in an effort to determine what the Newton voter looks for before he marks an X on the ballot. Its results help to define the particular qualities that make one man top the ticket and another an also-ran.

The questionnaires were sent to 40 directors of the Civic Association and to a large group of elected city officials. The results were tabulated by Mrs. Richard G. Mintz of Newtonville, chairman of the candidate criteria committee. Ernest F. Dietz of Newton Centre is president of the Civic Association.

Quiz Supplies Clues

In evaluating the survey, it must be remembered that these 2 groups are undoubtedly more interested in and more informed about local government than the average citizen. But the findings supply more valuable clues as to what the thinking voter looks for in a candidate.

"Ability to give the time required" was pronounced essential by an overwhelming percentage, with several pointing out that most candidates don't realize how much time is involved in committee work, in research, and in conversations with citizens about specific problems—in addition to attending the actual board meetings.

Need Rugged Health

The long hours prompted a few incumbents to add "rugged good health" to their list of qualifications. "You must enjoy top physical condition," one wrote, "to stand the grind and to endure the long meetings."

Of major importance, the replies revealed, is a "knowledge of the city and its problems." 80 percent ranked this item near the top. But how the average voter can determine whether or not a candidate is acquainted with the city's problems is a puzzler.

Thinking Voter Rare

The rare voter will study his newspapers, read the campaign literature, attend a candidate's meeting, and perhaps even "ask around" a candidate's home ward—but few have time for any more fact-finding than that.

To help overcome this problem, the Civic Association holds an interviewing session, with all the candidates invited. The session generally indicates whether the aspirant has a nodding acquaintance with the affairs of the city or not and aids the group in making their endorsement.

Must Finish Term

Ranking next in importance was "willingness to fill full two year term." Cases have occurred in which an incumbent resigned before his term expired and chose a successor (with the approval of the board of aldermen), who could then run in the next election with the right to call himself an incumbent. Apparently in the hope of preventing this undemocratic situation Newton voters are demanding that candidates act in good faith in promising to serve out their term.

Appearances Deceive

In the case of men or women up for re-election, the survey showed their attendance record at board meetings is of some significance. But here again, for the ordinary voter to get this information is a problem. Also, one incumbent pointed out that "attendance statistics do not accurately dinner, the funds raised are kept in the custody of a special semi-political committee of a somewhat uncertain status which is controlled from behind the scenes by ex-Governor Paul A. Dever. That committee parcels out the money in accordance with its own whims and wishes.

The Democratic State Committee members have nothing to say about the disposition that is made of the Jefferson-Jackson Dinner funds. As a matter of fact, the committee chairman usually has to go hat in hand to get the money to pay his own salary and that of his office help. When the dinner itself is held, the State Committee members ordinarily find themselves assigned to seats in the foyer or in some side room where they can't even see the head table guests and the proceedings are piped to them over a loud speaker system.

So it isn't surprising that last week the Democratic State Committee hit bottom again, with less than one-third of the members of the organization taking time out from their own affairs to attend what was probably the most important meeting which will be scheduled for them this year.

Possibly the same thing would have happened if Burke had been retained as chairman. He did succeed in bringing the committee back to life for a short time. But even he might not have been able to keep it alive over an extended period.

One thing Burke undoubtedly would have done would have been to try to rally the Democratic State Committee members in support of Governor Furcolo's sales tax bill.

He would not have been under the same handicap as Lynch who owed his election in part to the support given him by State Senator John E. Powers, implacable foe of the sales tax.

reveal the amount of work done in committee, which is vital to the workings of the board."

"Ability to work well with people" ranked high on the list of desirable qualities, but like "sincerity" and "integrity," it is hard to measure as appearances are often deceiving in this area. One alderman went so far as to rank this quality as "completely unimportant in legislative work."

Somewhat surprisingly, "education" and "business or professional capacity" ranked midway down the list, with the larger group labeling these facts merely "of interest." Candidates seem not to be aware that many voters consider these facts of minor importance.

Even less vital in the opinion of many were the candidate's "civic and community activities." Long years of devotion to Scouts, Red Feather, PTA, etc., cut very little ice on election day, according to the survey.

May Be Newcomers

Least important qualification was length of residence in Newton, which should come as a surprise to the many candidates whose campaign literature opens with "lifelong resident of this city."

Several stated, however, that about five years' residence in a community the size of Newton was a "minimum time in which to become a knowledgeable citizen."

In the case of those running for the school committee, the questionnaire wanted to know if voters would be influenced by whether or not the candidate had children presently or previously in the public schools. The consensus was that it was "of interest" but generally unimportant.

A final section of the quizsheet dealt with the value of obtaining candidate's opinions on current local issues, which subject will be discussed in another article.

from their classes one day this week.

Yet, the Spaulding School had only a 6.2 per cent absenteeism, the Oak Hill School just a shade higher and the Rice School 7.2 per cent. These figures were only slightly above normal for this season of the year.

About twice as many teachers as usual have been absent from their classrooms, with substitutes assigned, to fill their places.

Curtis Defends Validity of The 14th Amendment

Congressman Laurence Curtis in an address here this week severely criticized opponents of the Supreme Court school segregation decision and took sharp issue with those who have questioned the validity of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution on which that decision is based. Curtis is a member of the House committee on the judiciary.

"Opponents of civil rights legislation," Curtis said, "have preached and practised nullification of the Constitution and the laws of the United States. That in itself is bad enough. But there are some who even seek to tear down the very fabric of American constitutional freedom in the frenzy of their opposition to the ruling of the Supreme Court on the subject of segregation."

"They have gone so far," Curtis said, "as to question and cast doubt on the validity of the Fourteenth Amendment, the great constitutional bulwark on freedom and democracy and the one upon which the Supreme Court based its decision outlawing segregation in the public schools and other forms of discrimination."

Curtis said it is the 14th Amendment "whose ringing phrases safeguard our fundamental freedoms."

He pointed out that the 14th Amendment, along with the 13th and 15th Amendments was adopted shortly after the Civil War. The 14th Amendment, he said, was designed to protect fundamental human rights.

"It is incredible that the validity of the 14th Amendment, which has been an accepted part of our Constitution for upwards of 90 years should be challenged," Curtis stated.

Yet, certain critics of the Supreme Court segregation decision have had the effrontery to cast doubt on the legality of this amendment on the ground that some of the Southern States were not free agents during the Reconstruction Period when they ratified it.

"The suggestion that the 14th Amendment is invalid may have some emotional impact," Curtis said, "but it has not legal validity. It is dangerous nonsense."

Win Contest Prizes

Three $50 prizes for recipes submitted in a contest sponsored recently by a milk company have been awarded to Laura Irene Thayer of 5 Cappy Circle, Newton; Virginia Linquist of 16 Shirley street, West Newton; and Helen V. Cranford of 24 Groveland street, Auburndale.

Door prizes were won by Miss Anne E. Bunker, Mrs. Walter J. McInnis, Mrs. William D. Wellock, Mrs. E. T. Martin, Mrs. Edward B. Gray, and Mrs. Henry Goodman.

Club Members Are Fashion Models at Dessert Bridge

"Couturier Fashions for You," a demonstration of the adaptability of fine patterns and fabrics to everyday figures, was the feature of the Scholarship Dessert Bridge held recently by the Education committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club.

Modelling gowns and coats made under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy O'Toole of Waban were the following, all of New: construction, several years ago, the hospital has been adequately serviced in all departments to handle 300 beds, so the new construction should reduce the annual deficit. Certainly there is no anticipated addition to the operating deficit of the hospital. That a need for new facilities exists is demonstrated not only by the rapid increase in the population of Newton and Wellesley but also by the fact that many former residents of the area served by the hospital return here for hospitalization.

In charge of other fund raising projects for the affair were: Mrs. William A. Medlicott, and Mrs. Harry H. Ham, Jr., candy sales; Mrs. Charles A. Higgins, Jr., co-chairman, tickets; Mrs. R. Emerson Sylvester, chairman, fall berry bouquets; Mrs. Robert P. McLaughlin, chances; Mrs. Charles S. Butler, fashion show; Mrs. Henry R. Graves, Mrs. Frank Meyer, Mrs. Reginald E. Door prizes were won by Miss Anne E. Bunker, Mrs. Walter J. McInnis, Mrs. William D. Wellock, Mrs. E. T. Martin, Mrs. Edward B. Gray, and Mrs. Henry Goodman.

Hospital

During the past three years our accident load has almost doubled. Where we formerly had somewhat fewer than 400 emergency admissions or treatments a month, we are now topping 700 per month and the end is still not in sight. With the new accident service, the new obstetrical section and new medical and surgical accommodations to be available, the hospital will be in an even better position to offer the most up-to-date type of health service to the area which it serves."

14 minutes

14 minutes of your time each week is needed to enable the 377 agencies supported by your United Fund to provide essential services used by over half a million people.

For the first time ever in Greater Boston, you can now combine all your giving for the whole year and avoid the bother and added expense of many solicitations. The United Fund brings together the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Arthritis and Rheumatism, Mental Health, Diabetes Society, USO with the 288 Red Feather organizations and the Medical Foundation of Metropolitan Boston which will support research and education on the disabling diseases, thus making it really possible to give once for all.

Experience in other comparable cities where United Funds have been successful has shown that a fair share for the support of these many services is at least 14 minutes of your wages weekly over a 52-week period. You can take advantage of the Voluntary Payroll Contribution Plan offered by your employer and become one of Greater Boston's Fair Share citizens.

TAKE 14 MINUTES OF YOUR TIME AND BECOME ONE OF GREATER BOSTON'S MOST GENEROUS CITIZENS

With 14 minutes of your time, you can make a crippled child walk again . . . make sure that disaster victims get fed . . . make sick and forgotten old folks happier . . . help research scientists find a cure for a killing disease . . . find a home for an unloved child . . . snatch someone from death with a blood transfusion. You would never hesitate to take 14 minutes of your time to dry the tears of a little child in trouble. Now you can do this, though you may never see the child, through your United Fund.

14 MINUTES OF YOUR WAGES EACH WEEK WILL PROVIDE THE MONEY FOR THESE VITAL SERVICES

Helping the young and old: Your United Fund makes possible counsel and assistance to the aged, day care for children of working parents, guidance and protection for homeless, neglected and disturbed children through Red Feather agencies and departments of the Red Cross and Salvation Army.

Armed Forces: Your United Fund, through the USO, Salvation Army and Red Cross, helps to maintain social and recreational centers here and abroad for servicemen and to give them a lift with family and other social problems.

Disasters at Home and Abroad: Your United Fund provides emergency care and long-range assistance to fellow Americans and people in other lands with disaster, health and other problems through such agencies as the Salvation Army, Red Cross and USO.

Tomorrow's Citizens: Your United Fund, through such agencies as the Y's, Boys' and Girls' Clubs, Camp Fire Girls, Neighborhood Houses and others, serves youth through citizenship training, camping, recreation and safety education. These are the most important steps in combating juvenile delinquency.

O. KELLEY ANDERSON, 1958 United Fund General Chairman, says: "We, the givers, have brought about this United Fund. You can help make it successful by doing your fair share . . . by contributing an amount equal to 14 MINUTES PAY PER WEEK, the approved community-wide standard of giving."

Rehabilitation of the Handicapped: Your United Fund, through such agencies as the Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing, Red Cross and Community Workshops, leads the crippled and blind and otherwise handicapped people toward happy and useful lives. Through modern rehabilitation techniques they are made self-supporting.

Home Care: Your United Fund, through the Visiting Nurse Assn., Family Service Association, Red Cross and other agencies, provides nursing, home-maker service, counseling and health programs, as well as help to families with marital and legal difficulties, financial and home management.

Medical Services: Your United Fund improves community health through research, experimentation and education, blood and blood derivatives, aid to the poor, clinical and in-patient medical care through a network of hospitals and such agencies as Arthritis and Rheumatism, Mental Health Assn., Diabetes Society and the Medical Foundation.

HERE'S HOW EASY IT IS TO MAKE YOUR GIFT: Most companies in the community are cooperating in the Voluntary Payroll Contribution Plan that makes it simple for you to give your fair share. Pledge cards will be distributed in your plant or office. The small weekly payment will be automatically deducted from your wages each week and sent to the United Fund.

Christian Science Services Feature Spiritual Growth

Man's responsibility for spiritual growth and progress will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probatic after Death" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections to be read include the following (Philippians 3:13-15): "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as we perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (291:12-13): "Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them."

Sue Fessenden is working on this staff for the third year and Robert P. Siegel, Gunta Lapins, Sidney Vogel, Pat Beardon and Mary Ellen Donahue are helpers for the second straight year.

The F.T.S.A., a group familiar to parents, teachers, and students, is sponsoring an evening of panel discussions about subjects concerning Newton High. On Tuesday evening, October 29, the student vice-president of this organization is Patty Gordon.

Apologies to Debby Emerson, a N.H.S. drum majorette. Her name was misspelled last week.

This summer, Marcia Wittenberg, a present senior, was one of four United States teenagers chosen to participate in a six-week trip to San Francisco, Hawaii, and Japan. The group spent ten days at an international Junior Red Cross training center in Japan, and five more weeks in traveling. "Fabulous," says Marcia, when asked for her opinion of the trip.

Congratulations to Bob Calvert and Joan Lewis, the two Senior Standouts in yesterday's Newtonite!

King of Magicians Comes To Shubert Next Tuesday

Kalanag, who has earned the crown of King of Magicians, will bring "Sim Sala Bim," the biggest magic show ever presented, to the Shubert Theatre next Tuesday (Oct. 29). The show is actually a musical magic revue and stars international beauty Gloria De Vos, supported by a cast of 80 singers, dancers and magical assistants.

"Sim Sala Bim" is a Harold Steinman production and is being sponsored in Boston by the Aleppo Temple Shrine. The show comes here after a world wide tour of record breaking engagements in Paris, London, Berlin, Vienna, Johannesburg, Rio de Janeiro, Montreal and Toronto. During the tour Kalanag assembled his famous continental chorus made up of beauty contest winners from France, England, South Africa, Germany, Italy, South America, United States and Canada.

The show with its countless magic features, scenic effects, costumes, props and electrical equipment requires three baggage cars and weighs over 90 tons. "Sim Sala Bim" has a cast of 100, fifty different scenic changes, 200 original costumes and cost $300,000 to present in this country.

The dance numbers were directed by Gae Foster, new magic tunes are by orchestra conductor Theo Buchner with lyrics by Harry F. Unger. Gloria De Vos is a memorist of international fame. The beautiful star has memorized over 100,000 telephone numbers from phone books throughout the world and is able to give them to the audience correctly in five languages.

The magic numbers all conceived by Kalanag include the Balloon Mystery, Lady in Chinese Chair, Wonder Bar (101 liquids from a pitcher of water) Magic Doll House, Devil's Mail, a comedy surgical operation in which a member of the audience is cut into three parts, a musical levitation that has never been equaled and the greatest magic feat of all time, the disappearance of a full sized car on stage in full view of the audience. The show will play the Shubert for two weeks with matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

COMING TO SHUBERT THEATRE next Tuesday night is glamorous Gloria De Vos, winner of 20 continental beauty contests, who will be making her first appearance in Boston with the spectacular Kalanag revue, "Sim Sala Bim," featuring Kalanag, the greatest magician since Houdini.

450 Parties for 16,000: Senior High Dance Feature City's 'Finest Ever' Halloween Plan

If the Newtons — all of the city's villages and every one of its 18 square miles — seem to be jumping on this fine Halloween in 1957 — don't become alarmed.

For the city tonight pays formal tribute — in an informal way — to the weirdest night of the year on this Halloween. It's underwriting FUN for every single child able to be up and about. Fun that delights and thrills. Fun that leaves no regrets when Halloween's gone and the broomsticks of the night before are abandoned.

If the careful plans of the "little" committee of 1600 devoted men and women work out the way they've been assembled, the Newton child population of 16,000 kids of all ages and faiths are going to know the time of their lives.

5 In Court After Arlington Game Fisticuff Fracas

An outburst of fisticuffs in front of Newton High School following the Newton-Arlington game Saturday landed five alleged participants in court this week.

Three of the quintet taken in custody were residents of Arlington. They were arraigned before Judge Gardner W. Russell in Newton District Court Monday and their cases assigned for hearing Nov. 18. The Newton boys allegedly involved were under 16 and will be placed before the Juvenile Session of the court, Nov. 1.

For a time post-game traffic in front of the school, both ve-

City Says Country Club Violates Its Conditions

A bill in equity seeking to enjoin the Commonwealth Country Club from the continuation of alleged violations of conditions imposed by the Newton Board of Aldermen has been filed by City Solicitor Matt B. Jones in Middlesex Superior Court.

One part of the bill charges violations of conditions imposed by the board in April, 1956, when it allowed the club to expand its facilities; an-

Chestnut Hill Abutters Urge "No $500,000 Steak House"

Opposition to plans for the establishment of a $500,000 Valley's Steak House on the Worcester Turnpike, near the Chestnut Hill shopping area, was expressed by abutters at a public hearing before the Newton Planning board and the Alderman's claims and rules former Alderman Ernest C.

Angevine, representing Florence M. Buck and Benjamin Fastow, the petitioners, seek a change of zone from private residence to Business A, for 13,500 square feet of land on Boylston street, near Florence street, Chestnut Hill.

Buck, in support of the petition, urged that the surrounding land is mostly business and manufacturing and that there would be little traffic increase on Florence road, if the half million dollar steak house is established.

Posters Stuck On Poles Get Fast Heave-ho

Feeling over the campaign in one section of the city reached a point this week where one member of the Board of Aldermen complained to the police about the posters of an opponent which had been plastered on utility poles at Watertown and Craft streets. The candidate was notified to take down the posters.

Increase in Mayoralty Salary Would Be in City's Interests

When Newton voters go to their polling places next Tuesday to elect the members of their Board of Aldermen and School Committee for the next two years, they will also ballot on the question of raising of the salary of their Mayor from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

That is an issue which hasn't been given very much attention in the municipal campaign now drawing to a close.

For the most part the voters have been lending their ears to the Aldermanic and School Board candidates bidding for their support and listening to their arguments as to why the city's interests would be served by electing them to the offices they are seeking.

The Graphic would like to advance just a few reasons why it believes that a "Yes" vote on the question of increasing the mayoralty salary from $12,000 to $15,000 a year would be for the best interests of Newton and its citizens.

The fact that Howard Whitmore, Jr., has been an exceptionally competent and conscientious Mayor is actually not one of the compelling reasons for voting "Yes" on this issue.

Howard Whitmore at most probably will not serve more than another two or four years at the head of Newton's city government.

Then he is almost certain to go on to higher honors. Even now Republican leaders, after appraising his public

12,000 Voters To Settle Lively Election Battles

Approximately 12,000 Newton voters are expected to go to their polling places in the biennial municipal election next Tuesday to choose 18 Aldermen-at-large, 8 Ward aldermen and 8 School Committee members and to decide whether the salary of the Mayor should be increased from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

The 33 polling places in the city will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The heaviest voting is anticipated in the last three-hour period before the polls close.

Mayor Net Top Man On Newton City Payrolls

Supporters of the proposal, which will appear on the ballot in next Tuesday's election for increasing the Mayor's salary from $12,000 to $15,000 a year, pointed out today that Newton's superintendent of schools now receives $14,000 a year, $2,000 more than the Mayor. They said that last year the school superintendent was offered a pay raise but declined it because of his embarrassment over the difference between his salary and that of the Mayor.

It has mapped for itself and for the children of the city — from kindergarten to High School senior a night of fun and frolic which moves Halloween right into the class with Christmas and the Fourth of July as far as the child is concerned.

Because the committee was determined to make it the best ever you'd think it was going to cost a lot of money. It won't unless you consider time money. The committee workers have put in a lot of hours — week after week and month after month in whipping the big program into shape.

Expenses otherwise are being —HALLOWEEN—

One reason for the forecast of a light vote is that for the second consecutive time Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., is standing unopposed for reelection. He is expected to draw a good complimentary vote.

The biggest vote is expected to come out in Ward 5 and in the newly created Ward 8 sector where the liveliest contests have been waged.

The addition of a new ward to the city has brought forth a number of politically hopeful newcomers who are bidding energetically for the openings on the Board of Aldermen and School Committees.

At least one present member of the Aldermanic Board will go down to defeat when the results

Lower Falls Policewoman Gives Much to Community

By Phyllis Newton

"My mom's a cop — and can she cook!" says well-fed personable Peter Morrison, youngest child of Mrs. Alberta Morrison, traffic officer extraordinary who has been on duty at the Hamilton School in Newton Lower Falls for eight years without missing a day.

Mrs. Morrison, an outstanding member of Newton's Auxiliary School Patrol, is living proof that you don't have to be muscular or masculine to be on the police force. Trim and pretty with auburn hair and snapping brown eyes, she excels in such feminine virtues as fancy pastry making and piano playing, as well as doing a top-notch job as a "lady cop."

Generous is the first word that comes to mind when you think of Alberta Morrison. Her two special talents are decorating mouth-watering cakes and playing lively piano — and she gives both of these abilities to

Mayor Explains Emphasis Placed on City Planning

(Ed note—This is the last of a series of articles written for Graphic readers by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr.)

The City of Newton comprises approximately 18 square miles. Its area currently is about 90 per cent built up, mostly with homes, but also with churches, stores, golf courses, schools, college, playgrounds, libraries, industrial plants, railroads, aqueducts, streets, sidewalks and other miscellaneous structures.

Of the 510,000 square feet of land in the city, 21,500,000 feet, or about 4 per cent, are devoted to such municipal purposes and activities as parks, playgrounds and schools.

There are 47 different parcels of park land covering a total area of 3,795,000 square feet, 27 playgrounds totalling 10,500,000 square feet in area and 37 schools on 7,200,000 square feet of land.

In addition to all these, there are 43 other parcels of land containing 7,000,000 square feet devoted to other municipal purposes such as police and fire stations, City Hall and street department headquarters.

The Metropolitan District Commission owns 103 parcels within the City having 8,200,000 square feet of land. There are 215 parcels owned by institutional organizations which contain 29,300,000 square feet or 5.8 percent of Newton's land area.

Tax-exempt land properties, exclusive of streets, include 73,500,000 square feet or 14.5 percent of the city's total land area. Excluding municipal properties which account for 34,600,000 square feet, the balance of 38,900,000 square feet of tax-exempt land amounts to

City's Growth Presents Interesting Facts

Space limitations prevent more than a sketchy presentation of some of the more interesting financial statistics relating to the City's growth since 1947, as follows:

Expenditures	1947	1956	Amt. of Increase	Percent Increase
Cost of Debt Service .....	$ 71 3,000	$ 1,934,000	$1,221,000	171.2

TOTAL .....	$8,51 0,000	$18,265,000	$9,755,000	114.6

The above items show net expenditures and receipts. They do not include receipts or expenditures from bond issues. The impact of paying for borrowings is reflected in debt services expenditures which include both principal and interest.

Planning-

7.6 percent of Newton's total land area.

Newton is a community about 325 years old. Its population today is somewhat below 90,000 people. The last official census of 1950 listed 86,535 persons.

Approximately one-half of the present population came to Newton during the first 285 years of its community existence, or through 1918. The other half of its present population has come to the City in the last 40 years. Since 1947 the population growth has amounted to about 9,000 persons, or 11 percent.

A brief analysis of the effects of population growth during the past ten years shows greatly increased expenditures from both cash revenues raised from annual taxes and from borrowed money. To be sure, income from other governmental agencies such as reimbursements and grants-in-aid have increased but to no such extent as required expenditures.

Income from City fees, charges and miscellaneous sources has increased some, but not percentage-wise as compared with expenses.

In any comparison of financial figures since 1947, we must bear in mind inflationary effects on the purchasing power of the dollar. The rise in costs of materials and supplies, services and construction has been severe—as it has been in private business and for the individual family.

In the period 1947-1956, the departmental operating expenditures have increased ninety-two percent; the tax rate fifty-four percent; total funded debt two hundred and sixty percent. The debt for school construction purposes has increased eight hundred and eighty percent during the period.

In 1947 school purpose debt was eighteen and one-half percent of total debt, whereas at the end of 1956 it was forty-seven and one-half percent of total debt. In connection with the latter it must be realized that our public school enrollment increased forty-one percent, thus creating a severe school housing shortage which has had to be met.

Accompanying the population growth there has been, of course, an increase in the assessed valuation of taxable property, which, though taxes, is the principal source of the City's income. This increase since 1947, through 1956, was 45 percent.

The growth of the City will, of course, continue. The rate of growth cannot be predicted accurately but it is felt that it will not be as rapid as during the last ten years.

A further expansion of physical facilities, services and functions will be necessary. These will probably result in further increases in costs, both capital and operating.

It is for these reasons that great emphasis is being placed on planning, capital budgeting and operating efficiencies. Through the full and judicious use of these tools we can guide more intelligently the nature of the future growth of our city, its capital facilities and improvements, and better control future operating costs.

P.T.A.'s Sponsor Six Concerts For Schools Here

Six elementary schools will be recipients of the first group of Young Audience concerts next week. The New Art Wind Quintet from New York will give programs in the Oak Hill, Bowen, Hyde, Claflin, Peirce and Beethoven schools.

These concerts are arranged by the P.T.A.'s of these schools in connection with one of their projects, Children's Programs, and are presented as a gift to the children as a part of the school's educational program.

Children will see and hear at close range, and be able to ask questions about the flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon and French horn.

Other Young Audience groups that will visit Newton schools during the year are the New World Singers, Percussion Trio, String Quartet and the Boston Ensemble. Besides the schools mentioned above, Memorial, Mason, Countryside, Franklin, Cabot, Spaulding and Ward will participate in sponsoring concerts during this year.

Concerts to be given next week will be held as follows:

Oak Hill: Monday, at 9:00 a.m., Meadowbrook Jr. H. S. auditorium.

Bowen: Monday, 10:30 p.m.
Hyde: Monday, at 2:00 p.m.
Claflin: Tuesday, at 9 a.m.
Peirce: Tuesday, at 10:30 a.m.
Beethoven: Wednesday, at 9:00 a.m.

Hugh C. Boyd, representing Sophie J. Jablonski, owner of a building adjoining the land in question, declared that if the petition is granted, the board should also change the zone of his client's land to business.

Herbert Baron of 35 Tanglewood road, led two dozen abutters in objecting to a zoning change. It was charged that increased traffic would be hazardous to children and that property value would be lowered by the commercial enterprise.

Chairman William R. Mattson of the claims and rules committee conducted the hearing. Decision was reserved.

Guberman Urges Fuller Use Of Teaching Talent

Joshua A. Guberman, who is seeking election to the School Committee from the new Ward 8 district, declared today that the teaching program in the Newton schools could be improved and enriched by a fuller and more careful utilization of the special teaching talents now available in the school system.

He said that the difficulties which have arisen from the rapid growth in Newton's school population have been successfully met up to now but that more remains to be done.

Mr. Guberman, whose candidacy has been endorsed by the Newton Civic Association, observed that the new high school must be completed in time to prevent serious dislocation which threatens the present high school.

"There are other problems which must be faced now," said Mr. Guberman, "in order to maintain and, where necessary, to improve the high standards of our Newton schools. The present system of individual school autonomy is good because it enables us to try out new educational methods and ideas without committing the entire school system in advance of thorough testing. However," Guberman added, "I believe that, if autonomy is to work successfully, the school committee must see to it that there is adequate definition of educational objectives for all schools and continuing supervision of performance."

Mr. Guberman also proposed the expansion of the curriculum and faculty of the Newton Junior College to help meet the coming crisis in college education resulting from the increasingly intense competition for admission to college.

"There are some students who are interested in only a two-year program after high school; there are others who after two years at the Junior College will find it easier to transfer to a more traditional four-year college; and there are some professional schools which require only two years of college preparation," he stated.

Guberman also expressed concern over the lack of public knowledge about the schools needs and achievements.

"As a graduate of the Newton public school system," he declared, "and as the father of three children, two of whom now attend the Spaulding School, it is my firm conviction that the public in general, and the parents of school children in particular, have far too little knowledge of what is going on in the schools. Communication through the P.T.A. is not enough," he continued. "The members of the School Committee are public officials, and as such have the duty of keeping the public informed of what they are doing. Citizens who are well informed will be more sympathetic to the schools and will gladly give fuller support where it is needed."

partly met by funds from the recreation department, token fees paid by children and mostly by generous contributions paid by very civic-minded merchants and civilians.

Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, chairman of the committee, believes that her committee hasn't missed a single beat in making this the best program ever. There are all sorts of new ideas; all sorts of gadgets aimed at delighting the children.

Before the night's over there will be 450 separate neighborhood parties on the list.

The committee has been keeping the public informed on various highlights in the different neighborhoods and school districts up to this point. Here are some of the "wind-up" reports on plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Shaw, building chairman of the Angier School celebration, announced that Girl Scout Troop No. 8, has been of great help to Mrs. Alfred Forman, candy chairman, in making up individual bags of candy for the 541 Angier pupils. The Girl Scouts who took over this phase of the work included Melanie Cooper, Madeline Shames, Pamela Shaw, Linda Dannenberg, Judy Rosenburg, Judy Levin, Lee Sharman, Nancy Fitzgerald, Harriet Kupferman, Merle Isenberg, Susan Williamson, Carollee Nussman, Marjorie Price and Gail Patterson.

That's only one instance of how the children have pitched in all over the city in preparing for the big show. It's cited as an example. Everywhere the cooperation of the children has been wonderful, according to Mrs. Hovgaard.

The program timing calls for afternoon parties for the kindergartners, the early evening for the elementary and junior high pupils with the dance at the Totem Pole for the senior high students climaxing the evening's entertainments.

The 2nd to 6th grades of the Countryside School will enjoy a large number of games and other stunts, including a Chamber of Horrors, according to Mr. and Mrs. N. Leader, building chairman. Mr. Tobin, chairman of the Chamber of Horrors, and his committee, have carefully planned graded "horrors". They will "go easy" with the smaller children, but the upper grades will be given the works" which will be just what they are looking for. Other activities are complete and ready for a fine evening.

The Parents' Committee for the Mason-Rice School evening party comprises the following: Grade 4, Mrs. Saul Stern, Mrs. Arthur Blank, Mrs. Ida Shaw, Mrs. Elliot Bachner, Mrs. E. Goldman, Mrs. Fred Zaff, Mrs. Sam Gerson, Mrs. Harry Goldstein; Grade 5, Mrs. Leon Bickelman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mutter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shuman, Mrs. Dorothy Novack, Mrs. DiMaura, Mrs. Taber, Mrs. D. Kindergartners, and 1st, 2nd party this afternoon, from 1:30 to 3 o'clock, reports W. M.

Powers, building chairman. The program includes a parade around the block, taking about 25 minutes, games in the various classrooms and refreshments. Mr. Powers states that

and that unusually excellent programs have been worked out.

Pierce School P.T.A. To Sponsor Concerts

Teachers at the Pierce School discussed their students with parents at a recent meeting of the Parent Teachers Association. Dr. Lowell Coulter, president of the group, introduced the following officers:

Dr. Clifford Derrick, first vice president; Mrs. Leo Wolff, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Donovan, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph Garrett, executive secretary; Mrs. David Cooper, treasurer; Miss Ann Caldwell, school principal, ex officio; and Mrs. Elizabeth Flynn, teacher representative.

A number of suggestions aimed at the welfare of older people were offered by four authorities serving as members of a panel, "Looking Ahead to Retirement," which was presented at last week's fall meeting of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs at the Newton YWCA. Rep. Irene Thresher of Waban acted as moderator.

Speaking to the group, Dr. Jack Ewalt, State Commissioner of Mental Health, cited a need to establish councils for the aging in local communities. Stressing the necessity for a coordinated community program to create a healthy climate for that age group, he told how his department was increasing facilities for hospitalized care for the elderly as well.

Frank Morris, State Housing Board director of development, pointed out that Massachusetts was the first state to lead the way in promoting and subsidizing specially designed housing for those over 65. With more to come in the future, fifteen of these special developments have been completed in the state, he said.

As the third panel member, Mrs. Eunice Wilson, secretary of the United Community Services committee on the aging, emphasized the various ways older people may be given assistance in adjusting to increased leisure time. She listed such activities as Golden Age Clubs, Drop-In Centers, and University Extension courses as successful in assisting them to lead interesting and useful lives.

Describing the Newton organizations which already participate in programs for older people, Alderman Adelaide B. Ball of Newton was fourth panel member. She named the West Newton Community Center, the Rebecca Pomroy House and the Temple Emmanuel House as Golden Age groups as examples, but added that much more could and should be done in this field in Newton.

Mrs. Frederick J. Wood, president, conducted a business meeting preceding the panel, and introduced Miss Hilda G. Hope, executive director of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, who spoke briefly on the Christmas Seal campaign.

Refreshments were served by members of the Hostess Club, the Newton Community Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Morgan S. Campbell. Pourers were Miss Margaret F. Magoley, and Mrs. George R. Strandberg.

The speaker at the afternoon meeting will be Dr. Myron H. Lowell who will take as his subject: "Who are Massachusetts Congregationalists?"

The worship service will be led by Mrs. Franklin Field.

Ward PTA Greets Its New Parents

Formation of a large and significant group of endorsers for the election of Franklin N. Flaschner as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 5 was announced this week by Richard H. Lovell, former alderman from Newton Corner. Mr. Lovell pointed out that this group of Newton citizens actively supporting the candidacy of Mr. Flaschner is made up of civic leaders from all parts of the city and represents a broad base of endorsement for Mr. Flaschner's election.

Last year Mr. Flaschner was chosen "Newton's Young Man of the Year" by the Newton Junior Chamber of Commerce after his chairmanship of the Newton Red Feather Drive. This past week as president of the Newton Chapter of the World Affairs Council he was one of the speakers at Newton's 1957 United Nations Day Dinner.

Mr. Flaschner received his B. A. and LLB degrees from the Littauer School, Harvard University. He has been engaged in the practice of law in Boston since 1948.

He was one of the organizers and the first president of the Oak Hill Park Association, after which he served successively as president of the Memorial School P.T.A. and the Oak Hill District Improvement Association. He has been a board member of a number of statewide and city civic organizations. Presently he is serving as a member of the Board of the Newton Community Chest, the Newton Taxpayers' Association, the Mass. Mental Health Association, Friends of Framingham and Temple Shalom of Newton.

During World War II he was in the navy when he married a Newton girl, Beatrice Mandelstam. They now live at 564 Quinobequin road, Waban, and have three daughters at the Angier School.

Many Endorsers Of Flaschner's Ward 5 Candidacy

A tea welcoming parents of children new to the John Ward School was held by the Ward PTA at the school. Mrs. Helen Cohen greeted and introduced Miss Madeline Bartell, school principal. Miss Bartell briefly discussed the school program and introduced the teachers and room mothers. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Shuman and Mrs. Will Wilton.

her community so often that the residents of Lower Falls have come to depend on them.

Besides her remarkably faithful service to the police force, this energetic mother of four makes music for Cub meetings, dancing school, PTA affairs, and Sunday School—and makes cakes for field days, mardi gras, homecoming parties, and neighborhood birthdays.

KUDOS FROM CAPTAIN

Newton Police Capt. Charles E. Walker, who describes this city's school patrol program as an "unqualified success," says Mrs. Morrison is a fine example of the kind of person who makes it that way. Newton originated this type of program in the East in 1949, and it has since been copied by scores of communities.

Alberta Morrison was one of 20 women selected from the first group of 200 applicants, 10 of whom are still serving eight years later. She has been president and treasurer of the Newton Auxiliary School Police and was elected treasurer this fall of the state policewomen's organization.

"I like this job for many reasons," says Mrs. Morrison, whose blue-coated figure is a familiar sight three times a day at the corner of Cornell and Grove streets.

IDEAL JOB FOR HER

"I like knowing the youngsters . . . and getting a chance to know their mothers and fathers. It's true, I am tied down—but I'm tied down anyway—and this gets me out of the house without having to neglect my homemaking or my family."

Changing her clothes three or four times a day doesn't bother her a bit, nor does the prospect of trouble on her beat. "We have full police authority," says this capable lady, "but very rarely have to use it. Mostly it is just warning people to slow down—and if anything difficult should come up, I go into a neighboring house and call the station. A cruiser will be here in 1½ minutes."

She has never been forced to make an arrest.

FAMILY OF CAMPERS

Mrs. Morrison and her husband, Lawrence, who live at 41 Cornell street, are the parents of four children, Joan, 23, who is married and lives in Wellesley; Gale, 20, employed by the telephone company; Larry, Jr., 19, a printer; and Peter, 10, a fifth grader at the Hamilton School.

They are the kind of family that has fun together. For the past 25 years they have been tent-campers at Dennisport and other places on the Cape. They are the center of a friendly group who relax and enjoy the simple life from June 25 to Labor Day.

But when school starts, Alberta is back on uniformed duty five days a week—giving of her friendly personality and abilities to the community. No one could call that the simple life, but a full and rewarding one it is.

Halloween and Autos

We've got away somewhat in recent years from the costly mischief once helplessly ascribed to Halloween as a necessary evil. That's due mainly to the fine programs such as that which this community has prepared for the evening.

Unfortunately, on Halloween, just as on other nights of the year people get killed and maimed on highways.

As the American Automobile Association points out, conditions for accidents on Halloween, however, can be more prevalent on that night than many other nights in the year. If you are a motorist you would do well to remember that children can be expected to be on the street tonight, either going to or coming from legitimate parties. And some may be on the streets merely bent on mischief.

Tonight is a night which calls for extra careful driving.

A Fine Public Servant

When the Legislature fixed 70 as the retiring age for the Registrar of Motor Vehicles it is pretty certain that the lawmakers weren't thinking of a man like Rudolph F. King.

There's no question of any lack of foresight in that. Men like Rudolph F. King don't come along very often. When they do and choose a career in public service, the public which is made up of you and me and the fellow over there is benefited.

Mr. King hasn't been a showman. He isn't to be idle talk just for the sake of talking. Yet, by the very nature of the job he has filled admirably for well over a decade, he has been out in the open where the public can see and hear him much of the time.

Our record for highway safety as it is measured by the National Safety Council in Chicago is comparatively good. It has improved with the passing of the years. It is far from perfect as our soaring compulsory insurance rates attest. Yet, perfection on that score is beyond the reach of 47 other States as well.

During his administration no scandal has come along to muddy the reputation of his office. The personnel of the registry is highly regarded in the courts, by the police and more important than that—by the public itself. That reflects integrity, ability and devotion to duty that comes right down from the top. . . . There are times when the confidence of the man-on-the-street can be sorely taxed by gubernatorial appointments. The old axiom that the winner must get the plums which hang on the political tree too often produces top-level job-holders about whom the less said the better. . . .

Rudolph F. King has been no political hack. He has been a servant of the people. He's the type of man Massachusetts can be proud to call her own.

record, are quietly discussing the possibility of asking him to accept a place on the GOP State ticket in 1958.

What is a more compelling reason for boosting the mayoralty pay is that by present-day standards running the city of Newton and coping with the municipal problems which arise in the course of a day or a week is much more than a $12,000-a-year job.

The blunt fact of the matter is that a man who does the job which the people expect him to do is worth substantially more than $15,000 a year.

By comparison with comparable jobs in private industry, a $15,000 salary for a Mayor of a city such as Newton is extremely low.

Mayor Whitmore can be counted upon to do an excellent job as the city's chief executive for the next two years, whether his pay is increased or not.

He'll still be the same conscientious administrator spending long hours at City Hall on municipal problems after other city departments are closed and ruling on controversial issues with his same characterized, unchallengeable integrity.

But the time eventually may come after he leaves office, when other men of comparable honor and ability will turn away from the job because they can't afford to take it.

Newton is widely regarded as one of the best run cities in the United States. If you want to keep it that way, pay your Mayor a salary that it is a little more commensurate with the responsibilities and duties he is expected to assume.

There are department heads in the State service in positions of much less consequence who receive a higher salary than does the Mayor of Newton.

The compensation paid their Mayor is a matter to which the people of Newton ordinarily would give much thought. This city has been fortunate in the calibre of its Mayors, and until the question of increasing the mayoralty pay arose, thousands of citizens probably weren't even fully aware how much money their city executives received.

But in the election next Tuesday the question of increasing the mayoralty salary will be on the ballot. The voters can either approve a $3000-a-year increase, or they can turn it down.

Because it has been almost overlooked in the clutter of the campaigning for the Board of Aldermen and School Committee, The Graphic felt it should outline some of the reasons the mayoralty salary should be boosted to $15,000.

We want good Mayors. We want Mayors of the ability and the integrity of Howard Whitmore, Jr. We shouldn't expect them to make too great a financial sacrifice in order to serve the city and its people.

Mr. Brackman Explains

The Editor,

Newton Graphic:

Your editorial of Oct. 17, entitled "We'll Be Told What's What" contained many statements and implications which, I believe, do not accurately state the position of the department of Public Utilities and which appear to be based on a misconception as to the limited functions which the Department has in the matter now pending before it concerning the Highland Branch - Metropolitan Transit Authority extension. I would appreciate an opportunity to acquaint your readers more fully with the position of the Department.

The initial decision to extend the MTA to Newton was made by the Legislature in Chapter 450 of the Acts of 1957. The decision of the Legislature was further approved by the MTA Advisory Board consisting of of St. Lawrence University, Canton, N.Y., for the Edward John Noble Hospital Guild. Barbara is a sophomore.

Richard Bachelder of Newton, junior representative for the New England area of the National Education Association, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Northeastern University Education Society at the university's Hayden Hall this week. A teacher in the Newton school system, Mr. Bachelder spoke on "Teachers Salaries in Massachusetts."

The Department of Public Utilities enters the picture by virtue of the following language in the enabling Act:

"No construction work shall be done under this section until preliminary plans therefor, together with estimates of cost indicating that the project can be completed at a cost not exceeding nine million two hundred thousand dollars, shall have been approved by the Commission of the department of public utilities."

Under this act the Department has no power to decide or even make suggestions as to the advisability of the project.

Since the department's investigation is strictly technical, a public hearing would serve no purpose. The most sensible and expeditious manner of handling the problem is to have the department's engineers make a detailed study of the plans and to have interested parties submit technical data and criticisms of the plan.

This method has been adopted by the department, and its engineers are currently at work in a study of the plan.

An informal conference has been held with Mayor Whitmore of Newton and Matthew Brown, Selectman of Brookline, for the purpose of allowing them to indicate to the department aspects of the plans which they consider not feasible and items of cost which they believe to be understated.

The department intends to accept and consider any alternative studies made of these problems and in this manner arrive at a sound conclusion from an engineering point of view.

(Mr. Brackman's very lucid explanation of the legislation in regard to the Highland Branch serves to underscore the fact that Newton's voice in a matter in which Newton is vitally concerned is limited to the "informal conference" level. The city of Newton will not draw up the plans. It will be told what the plans are going to. It will not be allowed to veto in event it considers the final plans not in accordance with its best interests. Ed.)

Magazine Slur

The Editor,

Newton Graphic:

I've cancelled my subscription to the national magazine which carried what purported to be a chapter from a humorous work of fiction. I'll also cancel my vote for its author.

I have no doubt the publisher of the magazine was delighted to be able to picture a typical Massachusetts' barroom filled with men of the same race brawling and fixing elections. It's in line with that magazine's policy over quite a stretch.

Mr. Furcolo has proved a tyro as a Governor. He's an accident which can befall even a State like Massachusetts. He's a tyro as an author, too. An author only slightly more skilled would have disguised his slurs against one race by giving at least one character in that barroom a name of another racial background.

Mr. Furculo can enjoy his smug slurs today. On election day the targets of his slurs will remember his gratuitous insults.

Cong. Powell, Harlem, Church Council Rally Speaker Sunday

U. S. Representative Adam Clayton Powell of New York will address the fall rally of the Newton Council of Churches at its largest annual gathering open to the public, on Sunday night, November 3, at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Church (Episcopal), Newton.

The subject of the New York congressman's address will be "A Churchman's View of Civil Rights," and, since he has been one of the most outspoken men in the country on the matter of civil rights, his words will be eagerly awaited by the local audience.

He has served since 1937 as minister of the Abyssinian Church in New York's Harlem, with a membership of 10,000 worshippers. He is member of the Phi Upsilon Kappa Society, honorary fraternity in philosophy; the Alpha Phi Fraternity, the Masons and the Elks.

He gained national attention in the 1956 national election when, although a Democrat, he announced his support of President Eisenhower. He announced his decision to give the President his backing for re-election was due to the Eisenhower stand on civil rights.

In 1955 he attended the Asian-African Conference in Bandung, Indonesia, and in a press conference effectively repudiated communist propaganda regarding America's treatment of negro citizens.

The Sunday program is in keeping with the Fall Rally policy of the Newton 24-Church Council to present an outstanding speaker each year. The first Fall Rally was held in 1953, in connection with the publication and introduction of the now widely accepted Revised Standard Version of the Bible, at which time copies were presented to the Mayor, the "typical church family," the Newton Free Library and to other persons and organizations.

The 1954 Rally featured Dr. Frank C. Laubach, known as the "Apostle of the Illiterate," who devised the Laubach literacy method, providing teaching tools used in 252 different languages and dialects and in 91 countries, a system credited with having taught 60 million people to read.

The 1955 speaker was the Rev. Kiyoshi Tanimoto, pastor of the Hiroshima Methodist Church. At the time he met Richard Nelson, who served as radio operator aboard the plane which dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima.

In 1956, Emmett McLaughlin, author of "The People's Padre" was the featured speaker.

The popularity of the Fall Rally each year has been attested by overflow attendances, and preparations are under way for the accommodation of a large audience this year.

The opening service of worship will be conducted by the Rev. R. W. Woodroffe, Jr., pastor of Grace Church, assisted by the church choir.

Autumn Meeting To Be Held Nov. 6

Fire Chief Perkins Warns Parents of Blasting Cap Peril

The Boston University Women of the Auburndale, Waban and West Newton area will hold their autumn meeting at the home of Mrs. Albert R. Beisel, Jr., 23 Sewall street, West Newton, Wednesday, November 6.

The speaker is to be Dr. Edward C. Wagenknecht, professor of English at Boston University in the College of Liberal Arts. His topic will be:

"Browsing through the New Fall Books."

Dessert and coffee will be served at 1:30 p.m. Members of the group are invited to bring a guest.

Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Paul Deats, Jr., Mrs. Edwin L. Kautz, Mrs. Solomon Lipp, and Mrs. W. C. Moore.

Pointing out that almost weekly in the metropolitan area reports are received of children suffering injury — sometimes serious injury — while detonating blasting caps, Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., this week warned parents, children and construction workers.

"Blasting caps," said the chief, "are deadly dangerous. They can maim and blind. Many are injured each year in these accidents."

"The caps are short, shiny, pencilsize cylinders, one to five and one-half inches long. They are made of aluminum or copper and exposure to air may dull the metal tube. However, even long exposure does not always neutralize the powerful explosive inside."

"A blasting cap may or may not have a fuse attached, and it may have plain or colored wires leading from one end. Both types are equally dangerous in untrained hands."

"Parents with young children should take the time to explain the perils of blasting caps, and make it a point to familiarize themselves with the size and appearance of a cap."

"Construction workers, road builders and others who use caps in their work are cautioned to keep a check on all caps in their stock and to account for each one. They should be kept under lock and key where children cannot gain access to them," the chief asserted.

hicular and pedestrian, was hampered by the actual fist-throwers and curious on-lookers seeking to get a close-up view of the action.

Patriotism Peter Annee quickly broke it up, however, and order was restored when five of the alleged brawlers were hauled to the police station from the scene. The Arlington boys were allowed to cool off while awaiting trial. The Newton juveniles' parents were notified and came to the station house to claim their offspring.

Counsel for the Newton boys indicated they would seek assault and battery complaints, claiming their clients were victims and not aggressors.

The youths arraigned on charges of disturbing the peace, according to police, were Robert Bullock, 18, of Robbins road; Charles P. O'Hara of Sunset road, and Robert C. Colby of Eastern avenue, all Arlington addresses.

Community Group In West Newton Plan Bridge Party

Plans are being made by the Community Service Club of West Newton for a luncheon bridge to be held Wednesday, Nov. 13, at The Community Centre, 429 Cherry street, Newton. The public will be invited to attend.

The club is also working on plans for its fair and scholarship bridge to be held December 4, to which the public will also be invited.

At its first meeting of the fall the club members heard Professor W. W. Rostow, professor of economics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on "A New American Foreign Economic Policy." His appearance was made possible through the courtesy of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company.

Here and There With Uncle Sam

Two Newton youths and a former resident of the city were inducted into the military service by local boards 116 and 117 in the latest call-up of registrants.

The inductees were (by Board 116) Robert E. Dymza of Wellesley, formerly of 82 Country Club road, Newton Centre; Nisham N. Karakashian, 15 Russell road, Newton; and (by Board 117) Ronald Bussiere of 55 Clinton place, Newton Centre.

Second Lieutenant Douglas A. Ruane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Ruane of 255 Adams avenue, West Newton, has completed the Signal Corps Officers basic course at the Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. Brooks H. Pettit, son of Mrs. Charles H. Pettit of 359 Heath street, Chestnut Hill, has been selected a freshman cadet and enrolled in the Air Force ROTC program which will lead to a commission as an air force officer. He prepared for Harvard at the Boston school.

Do you like what you see, or do you feel that after all your work there is something missing . . . Just a fresh spark of life for the drab corner, or something completely unique and different for the reception hall . . . Maybe you are just using lamps as a means to light a room instead of a wonderful opportunity to add beauty to your home . . . Gene Dodge and the other girls at the Lampshade Studio will help you create a completely different and unique lamp that will be the envy of all your friends . . .

As we change from one season to another we will be storing clothes away for the spring, and shaking the moth balls out of last year's cold weather clothes . . . Every smart housewife knows the importance of thorough cleaning before

Oak Hill Group Hears Planner

The Oak Hill District Improvement Association, Inc. is conducting a drive for new members. "The association," says a communication sent out by President Eric H. Hanson, "has been for many years an effective voice in civic affairs. The larger our city becomes, the more important it is to have an active group at the grass roots level.

"We invite you to participate in our activities.

Brooks H. Pettit, son of Mrs. Charles H. Pettit of 359 Heath street, Chestnut Hill, has been selected a freshman cadet and enrolled in the Air Force ROTC program which will lead to a commission as an air force officer. They are cool and refreshing and actually dry your hair in half the time . . . I had the pleasure of drying my hair in a demonstration.

Until now they were only found in the private rooms of very exclusive salons and reserved for very special clients . . . Of course Anthony's feel that all of their customers are very special and he wants you all to try this "new adventure in beauty, with the emphasis on comfort."

We must seriously start thinking about our advance Christmas Shopping . . . If we wait any longer we will not find all the special items that we want like a Hi-Fi set to bring a world of music to someone we love . . . Record Albums and phonographs are going to be the big thing this year . . . so be sure and put yours aside now . . . at the Newtonville Record Shop.

The toy sensation this Christmas will be the Navy anti-aircraft Pom Pom gun . . . Kids of all ages love to use any remote controlled toy . . . They will love the way the gun turret turns into position and then with a push of the other lever they are in the middle of the battle with guns a-blazing. I am sure you have seen them in large department stores and on television . . . but you will be surprised when you see the special price tag on them at the B. S. Edward Co. in West Newton.

Any gift from Atwood's Camera Shop will bring enjoyment to the whole family . . . They have complete stock of latest model cameras and projectors and also every imaginable kind of equipment for the do-it-yourself photo fan . . . Did you know that they also rent movie films and projectors for parties . . . cute idea to make party a big hit with the kids . . . Recently we took our Christmas films along when we went visiting . . . My brother happens to have the latest model projector . . . I had no idea how much enjoyment we had been missing . . . You haven't really seen your films until you see them on a new projector . . .

Something to think about . . . Changing seasons as the ever changing tide reawakens in man belief in God and hope for the future . . .

Concert Series
At Bowen School
Starts on Monday

The first of a series of two concerts for grades 3 through 6, will be held at the Bowen School auditorium, on Monday morning, November 4. These concerts, to be given under the auspices of the Bowen School P.T.A., are presented by Young Audiences, Inc. They will feature the "New Art Wind Quintet."

The programs presented by this group are unique in that they are geared to those age groups enjoying the concerts. The instruments played, the background of the composers and the music offered, is described to the audience. In addition, participation of the children is encouraged by the use of rhythmic clapping to music; and those children, who so desire, may play instruments along with the concert group.

There will be a brief question and answer period at the end of the program.

Home of 'America's' Author Faces New Demolition Threat

Will the "Smith House," the home for many years of Dr. Samuel Francis Smith, who wrote the celebrated hymn, "America," become a national shrine or just another part of the Newton Centre business district?

The question is up again.

Back in 1956, the Newton Board of Aldermen saved its life when it declined to act favorably on a petition seeking to change the zoning laws which protects its existence.

Now, the Newton-Waltham Bank, which holds trusteeship over the old homestead, has brought another petition to change the property from residence B to business. No date has been set for the hearing. The old house is located at 117 Centre street.

Attorney Thomas F. Donnelly, counsel for the bank, is preparing his case for presentation to the aldermen. He will point out the close proximity of the "Smith House" to the business district.

Donnelly also points out the extreme run-down condition of the unoccupied structure. If the land is sold for business, he declares, the city would gain more tax revenue. His bank is serving as trustee for members of the family.

A stone, erected by the Newton Centre Women's Club, marks the location as the birthplace of "America." The stone was set in place in 1919. Since then the house itself has known a swifter-paced deterioration.

Dr. Smith wrote the hymn while attending Andover Theological School in 1832, when the school was located in Andover. "America" was first sung publicly at a children's celebration in the Park Street Church, Boston.

The century-old house, according to Chairman Fred C. Alexander of the historical research committee of the Jackson Homestead, made the Centre street house his home from 1842 when he came to Newton to become pastor of the First Baptist Church in Newton Centre, until his death.

Mrs. Parker Pond, one of those who is working for the preservation of the house, is contacting individuals in Newton and historical organizations to determine if anything can be done about it.

Although no specific action has been undertaken, several persons have professed interest,

Mrs. Halpern Honored

November has been dedicated as "Membership Month" in honor of Mrs. Fay Halpern of Newton, in recognition of her devoted service to Jewish Memorial Hospital for more than 20 years. This honor was bestowed by Frank L. Kozel, president of Jewish Memorial Hospital and Frank Altman, life membership chairman.

Circus Bazaar

Members of the Women's Association of the Central Congregational Church have been hard at work making arrangements for the Circus Bazaar which is scheduled to be held on November 14. Offered for sale will be gifts, aprons, holiday decorations, grabs, antiques, books, games, mittens, candy and home-cooked food.

Spooks and goblins may come trick-or-treating at some doors tonight but most Newton High students will be dancing to the music of Bob Batchelder at the annual Halloween Dance, held at the Totem Pole. The dance is planned by the City of Newton and aided by the Legislature Dance Committee. This committee consists of Charles Nahabedian, general chairman, Ruth Butterfield, assistant chairman, Sue Sholkin and Lee Milner, publicity committee chairman, and Hal Cohen and Bill Morris, the heads of the ticket committee.

Highlights and Headlights From Newton High School

By JUDY ARNOLD

HIGHLIGHTS . . . Hail Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and Washington, D. C.—Each of these cities will welcome one exchange group from Newton High for a week this spring. The Newton students will also play host to a return visiting group from Nova Scotia and Washington. Some students who were fortunate enough to be chosen for the exchange are Mike Greenwald, Elma Anderson, Dick Gordon, Marjorie Munroe, Dottie Clark, Carol McFarland, Bev Henrich, Ann Sutherland, Cynthia Shriner, Judy Arnold, Carol Isenberg, Ricki Novack, Lee Milner, Hal Cohen, and Peter Derow. They are eagerly selling N.H.S. book covers to help pay their expenses.

Ricki Kraska, president; Frances Dahl, vice president, and Marilyn Wasserman, secretary, are organizing the 1957-1958 activities of the camera club. The organization attempts to develop skills in the mechanical use of the camera and to give its members knowledge in the taking and developing of pictures.

A theater party and a spring outing are two of the many activities undertaken by the English Club, which strengthens and widens its members' interest in English. The newly elected officers are Howie Gidez, Bob Segel, Margie Wolbarst, Bill Goldfarb, Carol Shulman, and Ruth Neistadt.

THE MARQUEE . . . The Senior Play, an outstanding event in the school calendar each year, stars Richard Boardman, Howie Gidez, Dave Hazelton, Jim Draper, John Deming, Tim Kinchla, Judy Simone, Sandy Douglas, Cathy Harper, and Francis Atwell. Acting as student directors of "Charley's Aunt", a romantic comedy, are Sue Duchin, Joan Rosenthal and Emily MacMillan. The play will be presented Nov. 15 and 16.

Working ardently behind the scenes, but often forgotten, are the members of the stage crew. Nancy Scammon, Roger Kaufman, and Charlotte Haywood head the group that builds scenery and devises sound effects for all school production. As the organization also assists many outside groups who perform in the auditorium and gymnasium, the crew members get practical backstage experience in handling all types of stage equipment.

New and old members of the Drama Club were notified of the first theatre party by club secretary, Judy Simone. The group attended a performance of "Time Remembered" last Saturday.

Fathers Join Sons in School Project

On Saturday, from 9 a.m. until noon, the Rivers Country Day School, Chestnut Hill, undertook a unique project when fathers and sons from the fifth through the twelfth grades united in clearing brush, rebuilding stone walls and generally cleaning up the thirty-one acres of fields and woods recently acquired by the school.

Among Newton fathers and their boys attending were: Joseph R. Scott, president of the Centre, Waban and Newton Highlands.

Rudman is a member of the Democratic City Committee and has been active for some time in civic and political affairs in Newton.

A large group of his neighbors have been working to help accomplish his election, telephoning friends to solicit votes, giving house parties in his neighborhood and mailing literature.

While Rudman is in the legal profession, he majored in government at college, and government and public service have been a long-standing interest and hobby with him.

He points out that a great many of the problems which come before the Board of Aldermen are of a legal nature and he expresses the opinion that the interests of the people of Ward 8 would be served by the election of an attorney to the Aldermanic Board.

Attorney Rudman declared that he has been "active politically on the State level and in national campaigns," that he is "familiar with governmental ministrative agencies and boards through active practice as a lawyer" and that he also has appeared before legislative committees in connection with the enactment of proposed new laws.

"I believe that, because of my background and experience
I can make a contribution to the City of Newton and that as a resident who lives here and has children in the Newton public school system I should make that contribution if I can," he declared.

Rudman expressed the op-

can be of service to his city and to the district in which he lives.

He is a member of the Boston, Massachusetts and Ameriadmitted to practice before the the candidates, gave him its endorsement for ward alderman.

Riotous Living of Prodigal Son To Be Subject of Service

The way to overcome sin through spiritual understanding of God, divine Love, will be set forth at Christian Science servliving."

Passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary (22:15): "In patient obedience to a patient God, let us

versal solvent of Love the ad-mant of error, — self-will, self-justification, and self-love, —

G. J. Holtz Named A Baker Scholar

Gerald J. Holtz, son of Morris Holtz of 12 Westbound road, Newton, is one of 14 members of the 1958 class at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration who has been elected a Baker Scholar. This is the highest honor given students of the school before graduation.

The Baker Scholars were established in 1939 to honor the men with the highest scholastic achievement at the Harvard graduate school. The award is named for George F. Baker, New York banker, who was the school's first great benefactor.

Two-Thirds Rule Forced Only One NCA Endorsement

President Ernest F. Dietz of the Newton Civic Association in a statement today declared his organization did not intend to give the impression of a "bullet" attitude in its failure to endorse more than one candidate for alderman-at-large in Ward 5.

In answer to criticism of Alderman Edwin A. Terkelsen that although two are to be elected, the N.C.A. had endorsed only one, Mr. Dietz said that by-laws of his group requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of its directors before an endorsement can be made.

He said that only one candidate commanded this support.

Alderman Terkelsen is seeking re-election for his fifth term.

Mr. Dietz' comment on his criticism was as follows:

"Dear Mr. Terkelsen:

"The stand taken by the Newton Civic Association in endorsing only one of the three candidates for Alderman-at-large in Ward 5 was a disappointment not only to you but to the Association as well. A conscientious effort was made to render a positive decision with respect to each of the contested city offices, within the framework of the Association's By-Laws.

"These By-Laws state that 'no person shall receive the endorsement of this organization unless said person receives the affirmative votes of not less than 30 directors (2/3 of the directors) or their alternates, present and voting at the endorsement meeting. More than one person may receive the endorsement of the Association for the same office, in the event that not less than 30 directors or their alternates present and voting at the endorsement meeting, so vote. All voting in connection with endorsements shall be by secret ballot.'

"In regard to your candidacy, as with others, full discussion was held before balloting, and when no single selection resulted, a strenuous effort was made to persuade the group to endorse two candidates for the single office. The balloting in this case failed to produce the required minimum of 30 affirmative votes, even after rebaloting, and the Association was unable to take any further action on this vacancy.

"It is unfortunate that the endorsement of only one candidate for Alderman-at-large in Ward 5 reflects a 'bullet' attitude on the part of the Association. This was not intended. The Association was simply not able to arrive at a conclusive decision with regard to the two unendorsed candidates, either individually or collectively in view of the rigid voting requirements of the By-Laws.

"Insofar as any further meeting between you and the directors is concerned, it would serve no useful purpose, especially because of the immunity that the secret ballot gives to each director's views and judgment."

"Very truly yours,
"Ernest F. Dietz, President

Lively Exchange Of Ideas Marks Newton's Great Books Meetings

Do you enjoy a fast-paced discussion? Have you frequently put off reading the great classics — books you've always felt you should read? Do you think the world today can benefit from the knowledge of the past?

If your answer to these questions is yes, a Great Books group may be the stimulating activity you are looking for.

Registration opened today at the Newtonville Library for a new first-year Great Books group, according to Harold A. Wooster, head librarian. The group will start meeting as soon as there is a demand.

All persons interested in joining a Great Books group may register at the Newtonville Library, or call Mr. Wooster at the Newton Centre Library, DE 2-9128 for further information.

Thousands of adults have found that learning to think for themselves by studying Great Books can be fun. Ever since 1947, when the Great Books Foundation was incorporated in Chicago as a non-profit organization, groups of 15 to 25 people from coast to coast have been meeting to discuss books written by such authors as Plato, Shakespeare and Thoreau, books as old as the Bible, new as Freud. They have found that the books deal with basic problems as current and important today as when they were written: the problem of justice, happiness, immortality, government and the nature of man.

The regular reading assignments give participants an opportunity to do the reading they've always planned to do, then exchange ideas with fellow-citizens at the Great Books round-table. Sessions are not "taught"; the Great Books are the teachers. Members do the reading, then are asked questions by two co-leaders, volunteers who have been trained in the Socratic art of asking questions. Leaders do not supply the answers — the participants do. This technique makes it absolutely necessary for everyone to "think for himself."

The discussion groups will meet every two weeks, and will discuss a new work at each meeting. At the first meeting the Declaration of Independence will be discussed. Copies will be supplied at the meeting.

Judge Rose Named To Delinquent Law Study Commission

Judge Rose, who has offices at 85 Devonshire street, is an associate justice of the Dorchester District Court. He is a graduate of the Boston University and Georgetown University Graduate Schools of Law. He served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and is a member of a number of organizations.

He is honorary president of the Jewish Big Brother Association; a trustee of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies of Boston and State chairman of the Citizens' Participating Committee on Juvenile Delinquency.
